OUR FAITH AND FELLOWSHIP

What is Religion ?

Religion, as Jesus himself affirmed, is summed up in the two great commandments—Love to God and Love to Man.

What are the essentials of the Christian Faith ?

The Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man, the Leadership of Jesus, the Victory of Good, the Kingdom of God, and the Life Eternal

Does this constitute our Creed ?

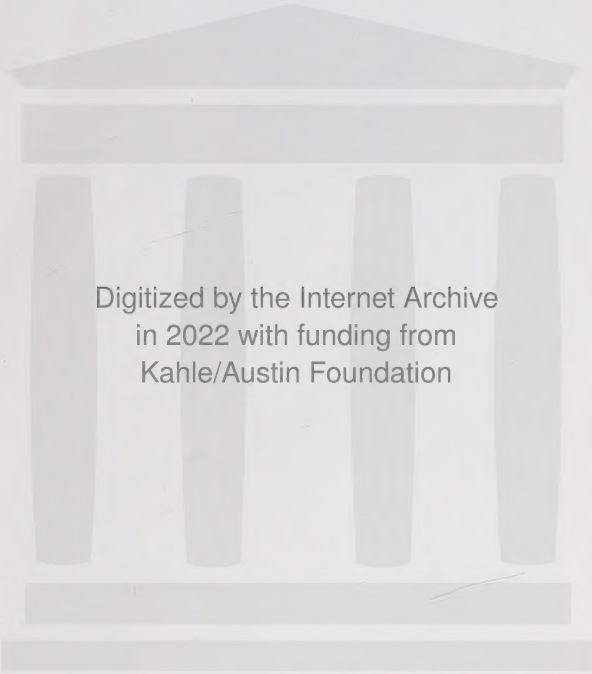

No, for though we cherish these beliefs, we do not formulate them as a settled creed, nor claim for them the authority of a final statement of religious truth. In the conviction that the dogmatic spirit is fatal to progress, we seek no complete uniformity of religious belief, but welcome to our open fellowship all who share our spiritual ideals and practical aims.

What are our Ideals and Aims ?

- (1) In things essential, Unity ; in things doubtful, Liberty ; in all things, Charity.
- (2) Religious Life, not Creed, the bond of union.
- (3) Freedom of reason and conscience in the search for Truth, unfettered by authority or tradition.
- (4) Fellowship the wide world over, on these principles, between men of differing creeds and faiths.

What is the Liberal Religious Movement ?

A movement in all the great religions of the world, and in almost every Christian church or denomination, of those who cherish the above ideals and aims ; and with whom, therefore, Unitarians and Free Christians find themselves in close accord and harmonious fellowship.

PREFACE

Once again the Year Book contains two new items. The Assembly has decided to establish a Roll of Lay Preachers and the first list of approved names appears in this issue. In this way it is hoped to give a higher status to our lay preachers who do so much week by week to maintain services in our churches. Further information about inclusion on the Roll and about the Training Scheme can be obtained from Essex Hall. For the first time also there appears the section for Fellowships. The qualifying conditions for congregations have been amended in the light of this new development. The conditions for both congregations and fellowships are now much more detailed and space could not be found for them in this issue, therefore, those interested should apply to Essex Hall.

This list of congregations remains the same as last year; there are 242 in England; 33 in Wales; 34 in Ireland; 4 in Scotland, and 18 in the Dominions and Overseas section.

The list of ministers contains 229 names, including 13 on the Supplementary List. There are 197 in the British Isles and 16 in the Dominions. Of these 229 ministers, 55 are in italics, being (with few exceptions) retired. To our retired ministers we again record our sincere thanks for the services they continue to render to our churches each week. The number of Lay Pastors is now 8, three of those previously included qualified during the year and one new name has been added. The Roll of Lay Preachers contains 94 names. During the year we lost by death five ministers, one of whom was retired. We welcomed five new ministers including one from another denomination, and one, temporarily in this country, from the American Unitarian Association, R. G. Kimball. The new names appearing on the Roll for the first time are: J. J. Goring (G.A. Student), T. H. Jones (G.A. Student and U.C.M.), D. Mills (G.A. Student and U.C.M.), P. B. B. Morris (Baptist and M.C.O.), and R. G. Kimball (A.U.A.).

There are 18 students in training for the ministry; 9 are at U.C.M., 5 are at M.C.O., and 4 are at Carmarthen, the largest number at the latter college for many years, and an increase of five on last year's total, but still far below the number required to make up losses by retirement and death. If we are to make any real progress in increasing the number of ministers on the active list we should have not less than 30 students in training every year. Only our congregations can remedy this state of affairs and it is hoped that they will realise their responsibility in this vital matter.

May we appeal to all churches to check their entries. This year at least 100 ministers and churches made no returns at all; in addition, a number of churches made returns which were patently inaccurate. This book can only be reliable if all will make prompt and accurate returns on the forms provided. One source of great inconvenience is the failure of churches to inform us of changes of secretary.

Finally, thanks to all who co-operate by keeping us informed of changes and promptly returning their forms; and especially to Dr. Rowe, Dr. Dorothy Tarrant and Miss McConnell for their invaluable help in compiling the book.

REASONS FOR SUPPORTING THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF UNITARIAN AND FREE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

1. The Assembly seeks to promote sympathy and united action among liberal religious thinkers and workers in all parts of the world, and to spread the principles which are believed by Unitarians and Free Christians to be essential to religious progress.
2. It publishes books and pamphlets illustrative of the principles and faith commonly held by Unitarians, Free Christians, and other liberal religious people.
3. It seeks to remove every doctrinal or ecclesiastical barrier from the way of religious progress and freedom.
4. It helps to maintain the work of Liberal Churches at home and abroad, and to support Ministers and Lecturers.
5. It explores fresh ground with a view to the initiation of new movements on behalf of Liberal Religion, and the organization of new congregations.
6. It holds Conferences and Meetings with a view to encouraging and inspiring the friends of religious freedom and progress.
7. It protects the civil rights and liberties of Unitarians and Free Christians, when interfered with or challenged.
8. It expends all monies received from subscriptions and collections on the direct work of the Assembly. Administrative expenses are met out of income from investments.

Subscriptions, collections and donations should be sent to THE HON. TREASURER, The General Assembly, Essex Hall,
Essex Street, Strand, London, W.C.2.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

OF

UNITARIAN & FREE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES

HEADQUARTERS :

ESSEX HALL, 1-6 ESSEX STREET, LONDON, W.C.2.

Telephone : Covent Garden 2384-5.

Telegraphic Address : Unitafree, Estrand, London.

Secretary : Rev. JOHN KIELTY.

Assistant Secretary : Rev. DUDLEY RICHARDS.

Some account of the formation of the General Assembly in 1928, together with its Constitution and By-laws, will be found on pp. 13-23.

The Assembly is constituted of Congregations (one or two lay delegates, according to number of members), Societies approved by the Assembly (one delegate from each), Ministers in charge of Congregations in membership, or not in charge of Congregations provided that their names appear in the List of Ministers ; also Honorary Officers, members of Council and Committees, Associate Members and Honorary Members.

The Council consists of 21 members elected triennially by the Assembly (14 lay, 7 ministerial), 16 appointed by approved representative Associations covering Great Britain (one member from each), 3 to be appointed by the Colleges, one by the Non-subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland, 3 by other approved societies (at present the Sunday School Association, the Women's League, and the Young People's League), 6 co-opted members, and 4 Honorary Officers—54 in all.

The Council meets at least three times in each year, and receives reports from the Departmental Committees scheduled in By-law 2 (p. 21). The Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (see p. 132) reports to the Annual Business Meeting of the Assembly and also holds its own triennial Business Meeting.

THE FORMATION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The Assembly was brought into existence in 1928 in the manner more fully set forth in the Preamble to the Constitution (p 13), by the amalgamation of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association (1825) and the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian and other Non-subscribing or Kindred Congregations (1881). The objects and operations of both these organisations were taken over, so as to unify the forces of the denomination.

The importance of the new organisation arises from the history of the group of Churches enrolled. In that history two tendencies can always be discerned, one expressing itself in the desire for lucid and definite theological teaching, the other in a desire for complete religious freedom. It may be maintained that there is no essential conflict between these two tendencies, but their adjustment is a matter of wisdom and statesmanship. Both appear to be vital to the spirit of the movement here represented.

Brief historical statements about the constituent organisations amalgamated in the General Assembly are given below.

THE BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

The British and Foreign Unitarian Association was constituted in 1825. It was formed by the amalgamation of three Societies : —(1) The Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and the Practice of Virtue, by the Distribution of Books, founded in 1791 ; (2) The Unitarian Fund, established in 1806, which may be regarded as the most important ; and (3) The Association for Protecting the Civil Rights of Unitarians, formed in 1819. These Societies were supported by Unitarians in all parts of the country, as individual subscribers. By far the greater number of the supporters were members of Unitarian and other Non-subscribing Churches, and the support of such Churches was taken to be an essential part of the work of the Societies. The amalgamation of the three Societies was carried out in a spirit of mutual goodwill, and the Association formed from their union gradually became a national and international missionary organisation. From the beginning it was in touch with kindred movements in the United States and in India, and soon afterwards (through the medium of communications in Latin) with the ancient Unitarian Church in Transylvania. At the time of its centenary, which was celebrated in June, 1925, its operations covered the British Isles, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, and several European countries.

The objects of the Association (see p. 20) may be summed up as the diffusion and support of the principles of Unitarian Christianity, including the formation and assistance of congregations which are free from a creedal basis, and the publication and circulation of appropriate literature.

In pursuance of these objects the Association assisted in establishing and maintaining Congregations, especially in the early and difficult stages of their growth ; it contributed to the support of Ministers, lecturers, and missionary preachers ; it held conferences and meetings annually in London and different parts of the country ; it issued books and pamphlets dealing with the broader aspects of religious thought and life, in addition to direct expositions of Unitarian Christianity. Many thousands of pamphlets were freely distributed in response to applications from Congregations, and inquirers in all parts of the world. The Association was supported by subscriptions of individuals, collections from Congregations, sales of publications, and income from investments. The range of its operations was dependent upon the generosity of Congregations and individual Unitarians, and others interested in the objects which it endeavoured to promote.

THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE

The National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations was initiated by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association in 1881, on the lines of a similar organisation in the United States, its intention being to bring together for purposes of consultation and mutual stimulus representatives of all the Churches in this country which stand for freedom in matters of faith. Beginning with meetings at Liverpool in 1882, the Conference met triennially until the War broke the sequence, which was resumed in 1920. After 1882, the places of meeting have been Birmingham, Leeds, London, Manchester, Sheffield, Leicester, Liverpool, Oxford, Bolton, Birmingham, London, Leeds, Manchester, Sheffield (1926).

In 1898, the Committee of the Conference, being constructed on a representative basis, was "instructed to hold regular meetings to consult and when considered advisable to take action in matters affecting the well-being and interests of the Congregations and Societies which form the Conference" ; and in various ways this was done, to the advantage of our Churches generally, and with the endorsement of the Conference itself at its General Meetings.

During the forty-six years of its existence the National Conference inaugurated various Funds and Committees, nearly all of which are still actively at work. In other cases it took over work already in progress, or collaborated in different undertakings. Mention may be made of the Sustentation Fund (1882), Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (1902), Subvention Fund (1920), six regional Advisory Committees, Ministerial Settlements Board, Committee of the Supply of Ministers, Social Service Union, Aged Ministers and Widows Fund, Contributory Insurance Fund, and (in co-operation with others) the compilation of "Hymns of Worship." The Annual Recognition Service for Ministers who have settled among us was also established by the Conference.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLYPREAMBLE, CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

WHEREAS after the passing of the Act of Uniformity in 1662 and the Act of Toleration in 1689, Congregations of Protestant Dissenters were established in many parts of England and Wales, and Meeting Houses were put in trust for the Public Worship of God without restriction of doctrine ; and WHEREAS many of these Congregations, mostly under the name " Presbyterian," preserved their liberty through vicissitudes of doctrinal development, and under grave civil and religious disabilities, and later became known as " Unitarian " or " Free Christian " or under some other kindred designation, their rights as a denomination being maintained as one of the Three Denominations having privilege of audience with the King, and as alone legally entitled to use the name " English Presbyterian "; and WHEREAS a similar course of development took place in many of the Irish Presbyterian Congregations, which after secession from the General Assembly took the name of " Non-subscribing Presbyterian," some of them being known later as " Unitarian " or " Free Christian "; and WHEREAS the Unitarian Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge and The Practice of Virtue by the Distribution of Books (established 1791), the Unitarian Fund (established for missionary propaganda in 1806), the Unitarian Association for the Protection of the Civil Rights of Unitarians (established in 1819), and the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, (established in 1825), into which these three bodies were merged, have given moral and intellectual and financial support to many of the said Congregations down to the present time, besides founding many other Congregations on the same open trust ; and WHEREAS, the Sunday School having become an important part of the life and work of the Congregations, the Sunday School Association was established in 1833, and has ever since served the interests of the Sunday Schools connected with the said Congregations ; and WHEREAS the British and Foreign Unitarian Association in 1881 initiated the establishment of the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian and other Non-subscribing or Kindred Congregations, and has been in close relationship with it ever since ; and WHEREAS in 1883 the Sustentation Fund for the Augmentation of Ministers' Stipends was established by the National Conference, and from that date until the present time has taken over the larger portion of the work of supporting the said Congregations ; and WHEREAS in 1902 the Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund was established by the National Conference, providing for the Ministers of the said Congregations a system of insurance for their old age and for their dependents after their death; and WHEREAS in the natural development of the operations of the National Conference there has arisen a certain amount of duplication of effort and resources with those previously within the sole province of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association ; and WHEREAS the personnel of management in the organisations named is largely the same, and their interests are allied ; AN ATTEMPT AT UNIFICATION OF THE FORCES OF THE DENOMINATION SEEMED DESIRABLE.

WHEREFORE, in connection with the Centennial Celebration of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, the Executive Committee of the Association approached the Committee of the National Conference, suggesting that a good deal might be achieved by closer co-ordination, if not even vital union, between the Association and the Conference. The suggestion was favourably entertained, and negotiations proceeded. At the Triennial National Conference, held at Sheffield on the 12th April, 1926, the following resolution was passed :

“ That the Conference, approving of the desire of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association for more vital union, should arrange for its own Committee to appoint a small Committee to investigate the possibilities of such a scheme as outlined, to consult with the B. & F. U. A., to explore the wishes and judgment of the constituent Churches represented in the Conference, and to consider constructive proposals for consolidating and strengthening the whole work of the Denomination, and giving it one representative organisation as its recognised head.”

At the 101st Annual Meeting of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, held in Whit-week, 1926, the following resolution was passed :—

“ That as the National Conference has approved of the desire of the B. & F. U. A. for more vital union, and has arranged to appoint a Committee to investigate the possibilities of such a scheme as outlined, this Annual Meeting instructs the Executive Committee to continue their efforts, to consider constructive proposals for consolidating and strengthening the whole work of the Denomination and giving it one representative organisation as its recognised head, and further to examine the bearings of such a union on the constitution and work of the Association.”

A Joint Delegation was appointed, consisting of representatives of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and of the National Conference. This Delegation agreed to recommend the desirability of the merging of the Association and the Conference, and auxiliary institutions as far as practicable, into a GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF UNITARIAN AND FREE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES, established on a representative basis, to carry on and develop the work which has hitherto been done by them all, thus unifying the life of the denomination. The Constitution set forth below was submitted by the Joint Delegation, with the assent of the two Committees, to a Special Meeting of the Conference on Tuesday, May 29th, 1928, and to a Special Meeting of the Association on May 30th, 1928, and adopted by both bodies.

I. Resolution adopted by the National Conference :

"That the name of the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-subscribing or Kindred Congregations be and is hereby changed from its existing name to 'The General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches': that the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, which has recently changed or is changing its name to 'The General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches' be amalgamated and united with the National Conference: that the Rules of the National Conference be altered and that the rules annexed hereto be and the same hereby are adopted as the Rules of the National Conference in place of the existing Rules."

II. Resolution adopted by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association:

"That the name of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association be and the same is hereby changed from its existing name to 'The General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches': that the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-subscribing or Kindred Congregations, which has recently changed or is changing its name to 'The General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches,' be amalgamated and united with the Association: that the Rules of the Association be altered and that the Rules annexed hereto be and the same hereby are adopted as the Rules of the Association in place of the existing Rules."

The Joint Delegation consisted of the following members :—

CONSTITUTION

(as amended to April, 1954)

1. NAME.

This Assembly shall be called "THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF UNITARIAN AND FREE CHRISTIAN CHURCHES."

2. OBJECTS.

The objects of the Assembly shall be:—

- (a) To promote pure Religion and the Worship of God in Spirit and in Truth.
- (b) To carry on and promote the work and principles of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and of the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations, as shown in their respective rules and practice¹; provided always that nothing in this clause shall be construed as limiting the complete doctrinal freedom of the constituent Churches and Members of the Assembly.
- (c) To promote union, sympathy and co-operation among those who reject for themselves and others the imposition of creeds or articles of theological belief as a condition of association in religious fellowship.
- (d) To meet for consultation on matters affecting the well-being and interests of the Congregations and Societies which form the Assembly, and to take such action thereon as may be considered advisable.
- (e) To help in the founding and maintenance of Congregations which do not require for themselves or their Ministers subscription or assent to any doctrinal articles of belief.
- (f) To publish and circulate literature dealing with religious, theological, and other subjects.
- (g) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them.

3. MEMBERSHIP.

The Assembly shall consist of:—

- (a) Congregations and Societies approved by the Assembly who are willing to be included in its membership, acting through their appointed representatives, viz.:—One Lay Delegate from each Congregation having less than fifty members, and two Lay Delegates from each Congregation having fifty or more members above the age of eighteen years on the Church Roll; and one Delegate from each Society.
- (b) The Minister or Ministers of any Congregation in the membership of the Assembly, and Ministers not in charge of Congregations, whose names appear in the "Essex Hall Year Book," or other Year Book approved by the Assembly, issued last prior to its Annual Meeting.
- (c) All Honorary Officers and members of the Council and Committees.

- (d) Associate Members. Life Members of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association at the date of the formation of the Assembly, and individuals subscribing not less than five shillings annually to the funds of the Assembly, shall be Associate Members and shall have the right to be summoned to its meetings, and to speak thereat, but not to vote.
- (e) Honorary Members. The Honorary Members of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association who were specially elected at the Centenary Meetings of the Association in 1925 shall be Honorary Members of the Assembly : and also any other person who may be expressly elected at an Annual Meeting of the Assembly ; and they shall be entitled to the same privileges as the Associate Members.

4. OFFICERS.

The Honorary Officers of the Assembly shall be a President, the Ex-President, a Vice-President (who shall normally succeed to the Presidency) and a Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members of the Council. The President, Vice-President and Treasurer shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Assembly and shall hold office until the next election of Honorary Officers.

5. MEETINGS OF THE ASSEMBLY.

The Assembly shall meet regularly once in each year ; and at least once in every three years the meetings shall be held outside London. The Council shall have power to summon a special meeting of the Assembly.

6. RESOLUTIONS AT ANNUAL MEETING.

No resolution shall be proposed at the Annual Meeting, unless notice in writing thereof shall have been given to the Secretary twenty-eight days at least before the day appointed for such meeting : or unless leave be given by the vote, taken without discussion, of two-thirds of the members present at the meeting ; but any amendment to a resolution, which the Chairman deems in order, may be proposed and discussed without notice or leave. The Secretary shall give not less than ten days' notice of any resolution to the members of the Assembly, either by circular or by advertisement, as the Council shall determine.

7. BUSINESS OF THE ASSEMBLY.

The business of the Assembly, subject to directions given at any meeting thereof, shall be managed by the Honorary Officers and a Council working through Departmental Committees.

8. FINANCE.

The General Assembly shall have the power to acquire and accept any Legacy, Bequest, Donation or Subscription for the promotion of the objects of the Assembly, without prejudice to any Legacy, Bequest, Donation, or Subscription which may be made to the British and Foreign Unitarian Association Incorporated. The expenditure of the funds vested in the British and Foreign Unitarian Association Incorporated must necessarily be directed to the objects defined in the Articles and Memorandum of the Association.

The General Assembly shall also have power to purchase and hold freehold and leasehold property in the United Kingdom (such leasehold property having not less than sixty years to run at date of purchase) where such purchase is considered necessary to enable the General Assembly to carry on its work with greater efficiency.

Capital of the General Assembly falling to be invested and all other moneys in the hands of the General Assembly falling to be invested shall (where such capital or other moneys are not subject to any pre-existing or over-riding direction restriction or trust as to mode of investment) be invested, at the direction of the Finance and General Purposes Committee, in the names of Trustees appointed by the Council from time to time as hereinafter provided ; and such investments may be varied from time to time at the direction of the Committee. Such capital and moneys may be invested in or upon any of the public stocks or funds or Government securities of the United Kingdom or of any State, Dominion, Colony or Dependency within the British Commonwealth of Nations and any separate territory, Province or Settlement forming part of any such State, Dominion, Colony or Dependency, or situate within the British Commonwealth of Nations ; or any securities, the interest on which is guaranteed by Parliament ; or in the purchase of such freehold or leasehold property as is mentioned above or in or upon the debentures or debenture or rent charge stock or the guaranteed or preference stocks or shares of any Company whatsoever incorporated (by or under any special or any public general Act or Acts or by Royal Charter, or in any other manner whatsoever), or situate or carrying on business in the United Kingdom or any State, Dominion, Colony, or Dependency within the British Commonwealth of Nations (including as aforesaid) which shall during each of the three years before the making of the investment have paid dividends of not less than three per cent, per annum upon stocks, shares or securities ranking for dividends or interest behind the investment made by the Trustees ; or in or upon the stocks, funds, debentures or securities of any Municipality in the United Kingdom or any State, Dominion, Colony, or Dependency within the British Commonwealth of Nations (including as aforesaid) having according to the returns of the last census prior to the date of investment a population exceeding 30,000 within its administrative area ; or in or upon any stocks, funds or securities for the time being authorised by law for the investment of trust funds and not falling within any of the categories above mentioned. Property which may be given or bequeathed to the General Assembly of a nature not specified in the foregoing enumeration may (subject to any direction restriction or trust imposed by a donor or testator) be retained, during the discretion of the Committee, in the form of investment in which it was received or (subject as aforesaid) may be converted into money at the like discretion and invested in one of the authorised modes.

The Committee shall not be responsible for any loss upon any authorised investments.

The Council may in their discretion from time to time appoint one or more bodies of Trustees in whom property purchased and investments made from time to time may be vested by direction of the Committee without further reference to the Council. And the Council shall have power to remove any Trustee or Trustees and to appoint another or others in his or their place.

9. CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNCIL (as from April, 1955).

The Council shall consist of not more than 54 members selected as follows :

21 Members (namely 14 lay and 7 ministerial) to be elected triennially by the Assembly at their Annual Meeting in accordance with By-Laws to be made as hereinafter provided.

1 Member each to be appointed by not more than sixteen such Representative Associations covering Great Britain as may in the first instance be approved by the Provisional Council, and, after the first meeting of the Assembly, as may be approved from time to time by the Assembly on the recommendation of the Council. A Representative Association may for the purposes of this Rule consist of more than one Association.

1 Member to be appointed by the Non-subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland.

3 Members to be appointed by approved Societies who shall, unless and until otherwise determined by the Assembly on the recommendation of the Council, be the Sunday School Association, the Women's League, and the Unitarian Young People's League.

1 Member to be appointed by the Governing Body of the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen.

1 Member to be appointed by the Governing Body of Manchester College, Oxford.

1 Member to be appointed by the Governing Body of the Unitarian College, Manchester.

6 Members to be co-opted triennially by the Council.

4 Honorary Officers.

The Council shall be deemed complete and duly constituted, pending the election or appointment of members by the bodies or persons entitled to elect or appoint members, provided that at least 21 members have been elected to the Council. Members elected or appointed by any bodies or persons shall be elected or appointed for three years, or until their successors have been elected or appointed.

10. MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

The Council shall meet at least three times each year, viz., once in London, and twice outside London, at such places and times as shall be determined. The Council may hold a Special Meeting when it shall so determine ; and it shall be obliged to do so if a requisition signed by twenty members of the Assembly be presented to the Secretary.

11. BUSINESS OF THE COUNCIL.

The Council shall appoint Departmental Committees and all the salaried Officers. It shall raise and administer the income of the General Assembly, and also the Trust Funds held by the Assembly, always reserving the rights of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association Incorporated as a trust-holding body.

The Council shall at every Annual Meeting of the Assembly present a Report of its proceedings during the previous year, and also the audited accounts of the Treasurer.

12. CASUAL VACANCIES.

The Council shall have power, in the event of any casual vacancy occurring among its elected or co-opted Members or among the Officers, to fill up such vacancy by electing a new Member or Officer to serve until the next election of the Council.

13. AUDITOR.

An Auditor or Auditors shall be appointed at the Annual Meeting ; and it shall be his or their duty to examine the Balance Sheet, with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto, and to report to the members of the Assembly at the next Annual Meeting.

14. BY-LAWS.

The Council may from time to time make and alter By-Laws for the conduct of its business and any other necessary matters.

Until altered by the Council, the By-Laws set out in the Schedule hereto shall be the By-Laws of the Council.

15. ALTERATION OF RULES.

No addition to or alteration of these Rules shall be made except at the Annual Meeting or a Special Meeting of the Assembly.

Alterations or additions may be proposed by the Council on giving three months' notice, or by not less than four Congregations or Societies on the Roll of the Assembly on giving six months' notice. Notice of such proposals and the terms thereof, together with notice summoning the meeting, must be sent to all the Congregations and Societies on the Roll not less than two months before the meeting called for their consideration. All alterations or additions must be made by resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of those present and voting ; and any amendment must be fairly within the scope of the original proposals.

Provided also that no alteration or addition shall be made inconsistent with the objects of the Assembly as set forth in Rule 2.

APPENDIX.

In reference to clause 2 (b) of the foregoing Proposals, the following is a statement of the Objects of the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, as set forth in Rule 2 of its Constitution :—

- “ (i) The diffusion and support of the principles of Unitarian Christianity, including the formation and assistance of Congregations which do not require for themselves or their Ministers subscription to any doctrinal articles of belief.
- “ (ii) The publication and circulation of biblical, theological, scientific and literary knowledge related to Unitarian Christianity.
- “ (iii) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.”

The following is a statement of the Objects of the National Conference of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian and other Non-subscribing or Kindred Congregations, as set forth in Rule 14 of the Constitution :

“ To consult, and when considered advisable to take action, on matters affecting the well-being and interests of the Congregations and Societies on the Roll of the Conference, as by directing attention, suggesting plans, organising expressions of opinion, raising funds to carry out the foregoing objects.”

BY-LAWS

1. NOTICE OF MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

The Secretary shall send to every member of the Council notice of the time and place of every meeting, whether ordinary, special, or adjourned, at least seven days before the meeting : and shall state in such notice the general nature of the business intended to be brought before that meeting. No resolution shall be proposed at any meeting of which due notice has not been given, unless it be a matter of emergency.

In the case of a Special Meeting summoned under Rule 10, not less than twenty-one days' notice of such meeting shall be given, and no business shall be transacted other than that which is specified in the requisition, except by leave of the Council.

2. DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEES.

The Departmental Committees (who shall appoint their own Chairman from among their members) shall deal with the following matters as indicated in the several titles, and such other matters as may from time to time be determined.

- (a) Finance and Administration.
- (b) General Purposes (including Civil Rights).
- (c) Grants and Extension.
- (d) Publications (Lindsey Press).
- (e) Ministry.
- (f) Sustentation Fund.
- (g) Religious Education and Youth (in conjunction with the S.S.A.).
- (h) Social Service.
- (i) Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (see p. 132).

Other Departmental Committees may be appointed if found desirable.

3. APPOINTMENT OF DEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEES.

Each Departmental Committee shall be appointed annually by the Council from its own members, together with such non-members as the Council may determine ; or as may have been decided by the Assembly in any given case. The number of members of each Committee shall be decided from time to time by the Council, unless it has already been fixed by special agreement. The Honorary Officers shall be ex-officio members of all Departmental Committees.

The Departmental Committees shall hold office until the first meeting of their successors.

4. DELEGATED POWERS.

The Council shall delegate powers to the several Departmental Committees, and these Committees shall be authorised to the extent of such delegated powers to initiate and carry out action without the necessity of reference to the Council, but they shall report to each meeting of the Council.

5. FINANCE.

The Council, having received the advice of the Finance and Administration Committee, shall, at the beginning of each financial year, allocate to each spending Department the sum up to which it may go in carrying on its work.

6. SECRETARYSHIP.

The Secretary of the Assembly shall act as Secretary of all Departmental Committees, unless otherwise determined.

7. FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The Finance Committee shall present to each ordinary meeting of the Council a financial statement showing the amount in hand and the amount received since the last ordinary meeting, and shall submit a summary report of departmental payments and grants approved during the interval.

8. MEMBERS AND GRANTS.

No member of the Council shall propose or vote on any resolution involving the payment of any money to himself or to any Congregation of which he is either minister or member.

9. GRANTS.

Grants to Congregations shall be made for one year only.

All applications for grants shall be made to the Secretary, and be accompanied by a statement of the affairs of the Congregation in the form required by the Council.

The grant to an aided Congregation will be suspended whenever the pulpit becomes vacant, and not renewed until the approval of the Council is obtained to any new arrangements that are made.

10. MEETINGS OF COMMITTEES.

The Finance and Administration, Grants and Extension, General Purposes, and Publications Committees shall have their permanent headquarters in London ; the others as may be found most convenient.

11. MINUTES.

Minutes shall be taken of every meeting of the Council and of the Departmental Committees ; and these shall be read, amended if necessary, and signed by the Chairman at the following meeting.

12. EMERGENCY COMMITTEE.

There shall be an Emergency Committee consisting of the Honorary Officers and the Departmental Chairmen, to take any necessary action ad interim, but it shall report to the next meeting of the Council.

13. ELECTION TO COUNCIL.

The Secretary shall send notice of the Annual Meeting two months beforehand to all Churches, Societies, and individuals being voting members of the Assembly. In the year of a triennial election such notice shall include a request for nominations of the twenty-one elected members of the Council. Nominations must be received twenty-eight days before the date of the meeting, and shall be printed on voting papers to be sent to all members of the Assembly who, as provided in Article 3 (a-c) of the Constitution, are entitled to vote. Voting papers must be returned ten clear days before the date of the Annual Meeting. No voting member shall be entitled to vote in more than one capacity.

Two months before the Annual Meeting the Secretary shall advertise in the denominational paper or papers the date of the meeting.

14. ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP.

(a) Congregations applying for admission to membership of the Assembly must do so upon the Form of Application approved by the Council. The application shall be considered in the first instance by the General Purposes Committee, and if in order, shall be submitted to the Council for recommendation or otherwise to the Annual Meeting of the Assembly.

No application shall be considered by the General Assembly from a congregation which has existed for regular worship for less than three years. Every application, before being considered, shall be submitted to the local District Association for observation and report.

(b) Fellowships applying for membership of the Assembly shall make application in the same way as a Congregation and the same procedure followed.

The qualifying conditions in both cases may be obtained from The Secretary.

15. RESOLUTIONS AT ANNUAL MEETING.

Resolutions submitted by the Council shall have precedence over other resolutions received in accordance with Rule 6 of the Constitution. Resolutions submitted by District Associations or affiliated Societies must be supported by a majority of the Committee of the Association or Society. Resolutions submitted by congregations must have been adopted by vote of a congregational meeting. Resolutions submitted by ministers and Council Members must be endorsed by at least twelve such individual voting members of the Assembly.

16. ALTERATION OF BY-LAWS.

No addition to or alteration of these By-laws shall be made by the Council, except at one of its ordinary meetings, and after notice given at a previous ordinary meeting of the intention to propose such addition or alteration. The wording of the proposed amendment must also be stated in the notice.

IRELAND

The Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland (1910). This church exists under a constitution which includes :—

1. That the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the Rule of Christian Faith and Duty under the teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ.
2. That it is the inalienable right of every Christian to search these records of Divine Truth for his own instruction and guidance, to form his own opinions with regard to what they teach, and to worship God in sincerity, agreeably to the dictates of his own conscience, without privation, penalty or inconvenience inflicted by his fellow-men.
3. That the imposition of human Tests and Confessions of Faith, and the vain efforts of men to produce an unattainable uniformity of belief, have tended to restrict the sacred right of private judgment, and to prevent that free enquiry and discussion which are essential to the extension of religious knowledge.
4. That the teaching of Christ himself must take precedence of the doctrines of a later time, and that unity is to be sought not in uniformity of creed, but in a common standard of righteousness and obedience to the commandments which Christ himself has laid down.

The Church is composed of :—

The Presbytery of Antrim (1726).

Clerk, Rev. W. J. Wharton, M.A., The Manse, Grey Abbey, Co. Down.

Churches : Antrim, Ballycarry, Ballyclare, Ballymoney, Belfast, (First), Belfast (All Souls & York St.), Cairncastle, Crumlin, Downpatrick, Dunmurry, Glenarm, Greyabbey, Holywood, Larne, Newtownards, Raloo, Templepatrick.

The Presbytery of Bangor.

Clerk, Rev. G. R. Buckley, B.A., The Manse, Ballee, Downpatrick.

Churches : Ballee, Ballyhemlin, Banbridge, Belfast (Mount-pottinger), Clough, Comber, Dromore, Killinchy, Moira, Moneyrea, Newry, Rademon, Ravara, Warrenpoint.

The Presbytery of Munster.

Clerk, Rev. E. Savell Hicks, 112 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin.

Churches : Cork, Dublin.

The Presbyteries of Antrim and Munster have each the standing of a Synod.

The Prebyteries of Bangor and Antrim together form the Remonstrant Synod of Ulster (1830).

The Governing Body of the Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Church of Ireland is the General Synod.

Moderator, Rt. Rev. E. S. Hicks.

Clerk, Rev. J. Radcliffe, B.A., The Manse, Downpatrick, Co. Down.

Dean of Residence, Queen's University, Belfast, and Magee University College, Londonderry, Rev. Dr. A. L. Agnew.

SECTION III

LISTS OF CONGREGATIONS AND MINISTERS

CONGREGATIONS

The list includes all duly organized Unitarian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing congregations in Great Britain and Ireland, together with similar congregations in the Dominions (p. 66). A few congregations not yet fully organized, and a few places of worship at present closed, are also included.

Particulars given include the location, the dates of origin, first building and present building, the hours of service, the hymn book in use, and the name and address of the Secretary. The names of the present and the recent ministers or laymen in charge of the pulpit are also given; the postal address is added if the name is not found in the Ministers' or Lay Pastors' List. Those whose names are printed in italics are deceased. The record as a rule goes back for 30 years, or to the earliest minister still living and on the ministerial roll, whichever be the longer period.

For the meaning of abbreviations, see p. 32.

MINISTERS

The list (p. 72) includes the following :—

(1) Ministers in active charge of congregations and missions, or occupying tutorial or administrative positions in connection with the work of the churches.

(2) Ministers temporarily free from a pastorate but available for settlement (names marked with an asterisk).

(3) Ministers who have retired from active duty (names printed in italics).

Each minister's name is followed by his address, Colleges and Scholarships, degrees of approved Universities and distinctions of special merit, date of entering ministry, and Congregations served by him.

Ministers in the Dominions are listed separately on p. 96.

The lists of Ministers and Lay Pastors are revised annually by the Ministry Committee of the General Assembly.

ADMISSION OF NAMES

(1) The name of any qualified minister regularly appointed by a congregation or a Missionary Association connected with the General Assembly, is inserted in the list.

(2) He is described as a 'Minister,' if he (a) holds the certificate of having completed the theological curriculum at Manchester College, Oxford, the Unitarian College, Manchester, the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, or at theological colleges of similar character in the U.S.A.; or (b) has previously been in the ministry of another denomination, or educated for that ministry, and, having satisfied the Ministry Committee respecting his fitness, has received a certificate to that effect; or (c) having been a Lay Pastor, has received a certificate of ministerial status.

SUPPLEMENTARY LIST OF MINISTERS

In 1952 the Assembly instituted for an experimental period of seven years a Supplementary List of Ministers which shall consist of the names of men or women who come within one or more of the following categories :—

(1) Those who have served in charge of churches as lay preachers or lay pastors for a period of not less than five years and have achieved an adequate educational status (not necessarily theological) which shall be acceptable to the Council after due consideration by the Ministry Committee.

(2) Those ministers who, having accepted full-time employment in some other vocation, have withdrawn from the regular list, but are desirous of retaining ministerial status and wish to give what service they can to our churches.

(3) Men or women of satisfactory professional status who have retired from their particular profession and have accepted the charge of churches on the Roll of the General Assembly.

Provided Always : (a) that the placing of a name on this Supplementary List shall not entitle the person concerned to any financial or other privilege for ministers on the regular Ministerial Roll ; (b) that each person on the Supplementary List shall be a subscribing (and where possible a worshipping) member of a congregation on the Roll of the General Assembly ; (c) that every application for recognition on this List shall be subject first to consideration by the Ministry Committee and then to approval by the Council of the General Assembly.

Note.—Managers of Benevolent, Fellowship, Pension, Sustentation, and other Funds are under no obligation to admit a minister to benefits simply because his name appears in the Year Book of the General Assembly.

OMISSION OF NAMES

(1) On resigning his charge, any minister may withdraw his name from the list.

(2) On his becoming a minister in another denomination, the name is omitted.

(3) The names of ministers who have ceased to reside in the British Isles (apart from those in the list of Dominion Ministers) are omitted, but may on their personal application be included.

(4) The names are omitted of those who have withdrawn from the ministry, or who for five years have had no active connexion with our churches or work. This rule does not apply to those who are temporarily out of service, or to those who, having been in the regular ministry, have retired by reason of age or infirmity.

(5) The names are omitted of persons who, by conduct, character, or otherwise, are in the opinion of the Council of the General Assembly, on the report of an Advisory Committee or a District Association, unfitted for continuing to hold the office of a minister.

Important to Congregations

Congregations are advised to take no steps in regard to the selection or appointment of any minister whose name does not appear in the List, or who is not entitled to receive the qualifying certificate as a minister (see p. 72).

LAY PASTORS

Lay Pastors are persons (other than ministers) in regular charge of a congregation or mission, who have applied for and obtained this status from the Ministry Committee on the recommendation of an Advisory Committee. College students who, while pursuing their studies, are in charge of congregations with the approval of the College authorities, may also, if they wish, be so described.

Those Lay Pastors who are actively preparing for ministerial status, whether in College or through the General Assembly Course of Reading and Examination (see p. 122), are indicated by a † placed before their names after they have passed the First Year Examination.

The names of Lay Pastors are usually omitted on the termination of their engagements, and reinserted on their obtaining a fresh appointment.

ABBREVIATIONS

LIST OF CONGREGATIONS

Dates—O. before a date indicates the year of the congregation's origin ; B. indicates the date of its first building ; O.B. indicates that the date of origin and the date of the first building are the same ; F. indicates that the date of origin cannot be ascertained with certainty, so the year of the first reference to the existence of a congregation is given. These dates have been scrupulously revised and corrected by a committee of the Historical Society.

In every case the last date is that of the present building. Buildings intermediate between the first and the present one, and renovations or alterations to original buildings, are ignored.

Hymn Books—H.W. = Hymns of Worship ; E.R. = Essex Hall Hymnal Revised ; C.W. = Hymns for Christian Worship (Ireland) ; P.M. = Perlaul Moliant, Pearls of Praise (Wales) ; N. = New Hymnal (Novello) ; P. = Book used by a few Congregations.

Liturgies—L. after Hymn Book signifies that a Liturgy is used at one or both services. Those chiefly in use are Orders of Worship, Ten Services of Public Prayer, and Seven Services for Public Worship.

Sunday Schools—The small s after the hours of service indicates that there is a Sunday School; y, a Youth group.

Lay Charge—The letters L.C. indicate a period of lay charge in the record of the congregation.

Pastoral Oversight—The letters P.O. indicate that pastoral oversight is exercised by the minister named, usually the settled minister of a neighbouring congregation.

LIST OF MINISTERS

Colleges—M.N.C. = Manchester New College (altered in 1893 to Manchester College, Oxford, M.C.O.) ; H.M.C. = Unitarian Home Missionary College (altered in 1926 to Unitarian College, Manchester, U.C.M.) ; Car. = Presbyterian College, Carmarthen.

Lay Charge—L.C. = Lay charge of a congregation before attaining ministerial status.

MINISTERS DECEASED

November 1st, 1959, to November 30th, 1960

Carter.—William Joseph Carter died on August 5th, at sea, aged 62 years. Born in a farm cottage in Gloucestershire he was educated at a school for the blind in Bristol doing well in class subjects but hopeless at craft work ; he mastered Braille shorthand then new, and learned Esperanto establishing a European-wide correspondence. These accomplishments at the age of 16 led to money being raised to send him to St. Edmund Hall, Oxford where he read classics and despite the fewness of books in Braille he graduated in 1923. He then proceeded to Manchester College for three years. He held ministries at Nantwich, 1925-38 ; Birkenhead, 1938-43 ; Carlisle, 1943-51 ; and Newport, Isle of Wight, 1951 until his death. At Nantwich he established a play-reading circle which still flourishes as the Nantwich Players. He was a member of the Library Committee and wherever he gave poetry readings he attracted large audiences. At Birkenhead he overcame the bombing of his church by establishing an Adult School and at Carlisle he also played an important part in the work of the Adult School connected with his church. All his life he maintained his interest in Esperanto, lecturing and preaching in the language and from time to time teaching it ; he was a president of the Esperanto Union for Liberal Religion. He travelled to several I.A.R.F. Congresses abroad making valuable contributions to the Theological discussions. An excellent preacher, a most conscientious minister, and a well-informed scholar he overcame his disability by turning it to good account—"It enables me to avoid distractions and concentrate." In a rare degree he possessed the ability to make hard things intelligible to all who wished to learn. He was the Assembly preacher in 1958.

Hankinson—Frederick Hankinson died on November 17th, at Hampstead, aged 85 years. Educated at Owens College, 1897-1901, and Manchester College, 1901-04, he served one year as Assistant Minister at Essex Church and then from 1906 to 1922 he was minister at Kentish Town, London. During the First World War he did relief work in Europe in co-operation with the Society of Friends. He was particularly helpful to our co-religionists and many others in Hungary during and after that War. He often advised "Join a cause while it is still unpopular". Thus in 1905 he became a supporter of the Suffragette Movement visiting members in prison and generally encouraging all at a difficult time. True to his motto he joined in the boycott of South African goods, marched from Aldermaston with the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament, was chairman of the Hampstead Peace Council and of the local branch of the local branch of the Britain-China Friendship Association. He was one of the few who could trace direct descent from an ejected minister and he never lost his enthusiasm for our movement, regularly preaching each Sunday in one or other of our London District Churches. He was a mine of information about the history of Unitarianism, both here and on the continent, and all will miss a friendly soul who remained young at heart to the end of his days. As a mark of its appreciation for his work over the years the Central Postal Mission made him an associate member, a quite rare honour of which he was rightly proud.

Sokell.—Fred Sokell died on April 30th at Sheffield, aged 71 years. Born at Wombwell near Barnsley he began work in the mines at the age of 13 and remained in them until he was 39 years of age when having read and thought himself into the Unitarian position, he entered Manchester College, Oxford. In his youth he was a Methodist lay preacher and but for the death of his father requiring him to support his mother, he would have entered the ministry of that church. Promotion in the colliery had come his way, but he had also known the rigours and hardships of a miner's life. In no way, however, was he embittered, his sturdy independence, his ability to see the other side of a question, and his quiet humour prevented any such fate; nor was he doctrinaire in his political views, though none the less definite in them. He ministered at Warrington, 1931-39; Heywood, 1939-45, Newchurch, 1945-51; and Fulwood from 1951 until his sudden death. A warm, rich personality, so very human, he was held in high esteem by his people and by his brother ministers. No one in trouble ever came to him in vain and little children found him a joyful companion. At Fulwood the chapel grounds and the verge by the roadside were a colourful tribute to his excellence as a gardener, and it is by such quiet, devoted service to chapel and people that he will be long remembered.

Toone.—Charles Gilbert Toone died on August 27th at Moretonhampstead, aged 76 years. Born at Liverpool he was educated at Wallasey Grammar School, Christ's Hospital, St. John's College, Cambridge and Regent's Park Baptist College. He graduated B.A., 1906, M.A., 1910 and B.D., London 1909. From 1909 to 1931 he served as a Baptist minister. He entered the Unitarian ministry in 1931 and held pastorates at Ansdell, 1931-36; Moretonhampstead, 1936 until the time of his death; he also combined with this latter charge that of Newton Abbott, 1936-59. For many years he organised the Western Ministers Conference at Penscot, efficiently and graciously ensuring the success of each successive gathering. He gave the Closing Address at the Assembly in 1958. He was a scholarly man who yet had the happy gift of preaching simple and homely sermons. His people remember him for his many acts of kindly thoughtfulness and his quiet devotion to their concerns.

Waddington.—Wilfred Waddington died on August 6th at Colindale, aged 59 years. Born in Leeds he spent some years after leaving school in the costing estimating department of a foundry, joining the Rotherham Church during the ministry of the Rev. Sidney Spencer. In 1923 he entered the Unitarian College proving himself an able student and graduating in Arts in 1926 and in Divinity in 1929. His first ministry was at Maidstone, 1929-36; and while there was responsible for the erection of a new Sunday School. He then moved to Bolton, Unity, 1936-44; and then to Mossley, 1944-50. In 1950 he went to London to become District Minister. In his churches he was completely identified with every aspect of Church and School life; in London he threw himself into the arduous task with a single-minded devotion that characterised all he did. To any and every problem he applied himself without stint and gave many new heart in desperate days. His quarterly messages were an inspiration and treasured by all. He served on the General Assembly Council for many years, was Chairman of the Ministry and Grants Committees, a member of the Programme Committee, and of several sub-committees. He was a Trustee of Essex Hall and served on the Management Committee ; a Dr. William's Library Trustee he served on two of the Committees and was chairman of the Ministry, Schools and Grants Committee. He preached the Assembly Sermon in 1959.

SECTION IV

SUNDAY SCHOOL ORGANIZATIONS

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Sunday School Association, founded in 1833, has its headquarters at Essex Hall, London, and works in union with the Religious Education and Youth Department of the General Assembly. CONVALESCENT AND HOLIDAY HOMES, ETC.

Northern Sunday School Federation Centre.

Warden : Mr. Henry Tittle.

Unitarian Holiday Centre, Great Hucklow, Buxton, Derbyshire.

Telegrams : Tideswell, 218 ; Telephone : Tideswell, 218.

The Unitarian Holiday and Convalescent Centre is situated in the Derbyshire village of Great Hucklow, four and a half miles north of Millers Dale Station, and on the Sheffield-Buxton 'bus route. There are three Homes set in 26 acres of grounds. They are : Barleycrofts (1908) which was formerly a country residence ; Florence Nightingale Home (1918), a stone building erected in 1930 ; and the Holiday Home (1899) which provides dormitory accommodation.

The Centre offers accommodation for holiday-makers, convalescents, youth groups, conferences, and parties of Sunday School and other school children accompanied by responsible teachers. Applications should be made to the Warden.

Grundy Home—The work of this Home is now carried on at the Great Hucklow Centre, all funds from the sale of the premises at Blackpool in 1949 being held in trust, pending the building of new premises at Hucklow.

Bruce Cottage, Gossamer Lane, Aldwick, Bognor Regis (1927).

The Home was built in 1926 by donations, as a centre for Holiday and Convalescent work in connection with the London Domestic Mission at 28 Bell Street, N.W. 1, and was named after the largest benefactress, Miss Mary L. Bruce. Visitors from other Churches are admitted when accommodation is available. Apply to Rev. Walter M. Long, 28 Bell Street, London, N.W.1.

Vale Head Camp, Kinver

HEADQUARTERS, ETC.

ESSEX HALL, LONDON

Essex Hall Trust (1885)—Essex Hall, in Essex Street, Strand, London, formerly Essex Street Chapel, was acquired and altered in 1885 to provide a Central Hall or meeting place in the metropolis for Unitarians, Offices and Book Rooms for the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and the Sunday School Association. On July 28th, 1944, the Hall was destroyed beyond repair by enemy action. Thus ended 59 years of service as headquarters and central meeting place for the denomination. It contained the offices of the General Assembly and of the Sunday School Association, and the Essex Hall Bookshop. The Hall was let for public meetings, lectures, arbitrations and other purposes; it thus became a well-known centre for gatherings of men and women interested in very varied schemes for the amelioration and enlightenment of mankind.

In June, 1957, the Foundation Stone of the new building was laid and on October 25th, 1958, the new Essex Hall was opened. It again contains the offices of the General Assembly and of the Sunday School Association, and the Lindsey Press Bookshop. The central hall is smaller than its predecessor and has been named The Martineau Hall and registered for Public Worship. There are also two excellent Committee Rooms and an office shared by the Publicity Department of the Assembly and the Women's League.

Essex Hall, Incorporated, is a Trust governed by Twenty Trustees, who as vacancies occur, are elected alternately by the General Assembly and the Sunday School Association. The Trustees are :—

1903	Ronald Bartram.	1944	E. G. Lee.
1909	Ronald P. Jones.	1945	H. S. Carter.
1913	Herbert Gimson.	1945	J. S. S. Cooper.
1925	Arnold Broadbent.	1948	Kenneth S. Tayler.
1930	Mortimer Rowe.	1951	John Kielty.
1932	Mrs. Sydney Martineau.	1954	H. J. Bush.
1932	Sydney Roscoe.	1957	Dudley Richards.
1937	Miss Dorothy Tarrant.	1957	Jeremy Goring.
1937	F. Alan Martineau.	1958	I. Knowlson.

Hon. Secretary : F. Alan Martineau, Valley End House, Chobham, Surrey.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

ESSEX HALL, ESSEX STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.2

Secretary—Rev. Mortimer Rowe, B.A., D.D.

At the Annual Meeting of members of the B. and F.U.A. held at Whitsuntide, 1914, a resolution was adopted authorising the Committee to take the necessary legal steps for securing the Incorporation of the Association. Accordingly a "Memorandum and Articles of Association" was prepared under competent legal advice and in consultation with officials of the Board of Trade; the Licence by the Board of Trade was issued on July 21st, 1915, and the Certificate of Incorporation on July 28th, 1915. The Association is licensed under section 20 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act 1908. It is especially provided, as a condition of granting the licence, that no portion of its income shall be paid or transferred by way of profit to any member of the Association; and the Memorandum includes a clause giving the objects of the Association (as stated above, pages 20-21).

A body corporate is legally an individual. On the financial side, the chief advantage of incorporation is that it obviates the trouble and expense incurred in transferring investments on the death or resignation of trustees. In this body corporate the funds which were administered by the Executive Committee of the Association are legally vested, whether for the general purposes of the body, or for special purposes prescribed under wills or trusts. The merging of the general membership of the Association in the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches does not involve the dissolution of the Incorporated Association, which remains in being as a trust-holding body; and its position is recognised in clause 8 of the Constitution (see page 17). The income from general investments is paid over to the General Assembly, to be expended in accordance with the objects referred to above. The Articles of Incorporation, as amended by the Board of Trade since the formation of the General Assembly, permit the membership of the Incorporated Association (at present about 50) to be maintained by the election of new members at the discretion of the Annual General Meeting. An Executive Committee of 13 members is elected annually.

THE LINDSEY PRESS

ESSEX HALL, ESSEX STREET, STRAND, LONDON, W.C.2

Secretary and Manager—Miss M. Boxall.

The Lindsey Press was reorganized in March, 1926, by the amalgamation of the Bookrooms previously conducted by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association and the Sunday School Association, respectively. It is controlled by a Publications Committee consisting of representatives of the Council of the General Assembly and the Sunday School Association. Over 200 publications issued by the Lindsey Press are included in the general catalogue : also the Bookshop stocks a general collection of works of all kinds and obtains books from all publishers as required.

The Bookshop is open Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. Communications should be addressed to the Manager, The Lindsey Press, Essex Hall, Essex Street, London, W.C.2.

SECTION VI

TRAINING FOR THE MINISTRY

FOREWORD

Students whose intention it is to enter the Ministry of the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches are requested to acquaint the Secretary of the General Assembly with their intention at the time of their making application for admission to one of the Colleges, so that the Ministry Committee may be in touch with them from the beginning of their training.

THEOLOGICAL COLLEGES

STANDING CONFERENCE.

A Standing Conference of the Principal and one other from each of the three Colleges together with two representatives of the General Assembly has been set up and replaces the Joint Academic Board of the two Colleges at Manchester and Oxford. The Conference is a consultative body with no executive powers. It meets twice yearly for the exchange of information, consultation, the discussion of experiments, and the consideration of suggested changes in, and additions to, the curricula.

The Secretary of the Assembly acts as convenor.

MANCHESTER COLLEGE, OXFORD.—Founded at Manchester, 22 February, 1786, one of a succession of Nonconformist Academies, the earliest opened by Richard Frankland, one of the ejected clergy, in the year 1670 ; removed to York in 1803 ; restored to Manchester in 1840 ; transferred to London in 1853 ; removed to Oxford in 1889 ; new buildings, Mansfield Road, Oxford, opened October, 1893.

College Studies. The main purpose of the College, in accordance with its original purpose of freely imparting theological knowledge without requiring the adoption of particular doctrines, is to train students for the ministry in an atmosphere of reverent freedom, unbiased by doctrinal or credal bonds. The regular course of three years is open to graduates, and in particular circumstances there is a four-year course for non-graduates. Bursaries are offered where needed to students taking degrees at Oxford or elsewhere, before proceeding to the regular theological course. Undergraduates intending to come to the College for theological training on the completion of their degree course, whether they are in receipt of a bursary or not, should apply as early as possible for recognition as external students of the College.

In addition there is provision for research students, and refresher courses for ministers are held from time to time. Members of the College attend lectures in the Faculty of Theology of Oxford University and, if sufficiently equipped, are encouraged to take a B.D. or Diploma in Theology. The College is residential and is a licensed hostel of the University in which a number of undergraduates reside.

For prospectus and conditions of admission application should be made to the Principal.

Teaching Staff. Principal, Rev. L. A. GARRARD, M.A., B.D. ; Tutor in New Testament, Rev. L. A. GARRARD, M.A., B.D. ; Tutor in Christian History, Rev. H. L. Secretaries.—Lay, Sir FELIX BRUNNER, Greys Court, Henley-on-Thames ; Clerical, Rev. E. S. PRICE, M.A., 13 Shrewsbury Road, Bolton.

THE UNITARIAN COLLEGE, MANCHESTER.—Established in 1854 as the Unitarian Home Missionary Board. The title was altered in 1889 to the Unitarian Home Missionary College, and in 1926 to the Unitarian College, Manchester. The College adheres to the principle of freely imparting theological knowledge, without insisting on the adoption of particular theological doctrines. The collegiate and residential building in Daisy Bank Road, Victoria Park, Manchester 14, provides accommodation for the Principal and twenty-five students. The building was opened in 1905, and the new Library (now entitled the McLachlan Library) in 1923. The College is affiliated to the University of Manchester.

Courses.—Students are prepared for degrees in Arts and Theology and for University Certificates in Theology and Biblical Knowledge as well as for the College Certificate. All students take classes at the University as well as at the College : (i) The full Arts Degree Course followed by the Theological Course (5 or 6 years) ; (ii) The Combined Arts Degree and Theological Course (4 years after Matriculation) ; (iii) The Theological Course (3 years) ; (iv) Special courses arranged to meet special circumstances ; (v) A Probationary Course of one year for students not fully qualified to enter upon the Theological Course ; (vi) The General Assembly Students' Course of four years. G.A. Students are Lay Pastors in charge of churches in the district who attend college three days a week.

Admission of Students.—Applications for admission should be made to the Principal.

Bursaries.—Bursaries are offered providing full maintenance and fees. Inquiries should be made of the Principal.

Teaching Staff.—Principal, Rev. F. KENWORTHY, M.A., B.D. Tutor in the Old and New Testaments, THE PRINCIPAL. Tutor in Theology, Rev. A. J. LONG, M.A. Tutor in Psychology, Rev. C. H. Special Students : Rev. D. Mills.
T. H. Davenport.

THE PRESBYTERIAN COLLEGE, CARMARTHEN.—This College is the continuation of the Academy founded by the Rev. Samuel Jones, M.A., some time fellow of Jesus College, Oxford, one of the Two Thousand ejected Ministers of 1662 ; and is supported and governed by the Presbyterian Board, London, founded in 1689. It is endowed in part by the Will of Dr. Daniel Williams (1644-1715), by the Jackson Trustees, and the Berman Trustees. The College is an Associated College of the University of Wales. It exists for the purpose of educating young men for the Christian ministry among Protestant Non-conformists, and is open to students of all denominations without any theological test.

Courses of Study.—The course for the Diploma in Theology of the University of Wales extends over four years, the final year of which may, in certain circumstances, be spent at a University College. The graduate course for the B.D. of the University of Wales is one of three years. On the Foundation of the Presbyterian Fund there are also undergraduate students at Aberystwyth, Cardiff and Swansea, who are in most cases in receipt of bursaries.

Scholarships.—Scholarships and bursaries are offered by the Presbyterian Board, various bodies of Trustees, and private donors. Graduate Students preparing for the B.D. of the University of Wales are eligible for scholarships offered by Dr. Williams's Trustees. Undergraduate students pursuing a course of study in Arts at a University College in preparation for the B.D. course are also eligible for bursaries offered by the Presbyterian Fund. Applications should reach the Secretary before June 10th.

Teaching Staff.—Principal, and Professor of Philosophy of Religion and Christian Doctrine, REV. T. GEORGE DAVIES, B.A., B.D. Professor of Church History, THE PRINCIPAL. Professor of New Testament, REV. D. HERBERT DAVIES, B.A., B.D. Professor of Old Testament, REV. D. J. Unitarian Students, 1960-61. E. W. PHILLIPS (Third Year), L. BOWEN (First Year), D. J. G. EVANS (First Year), J. E. JONES (External Student).

Secretary.—Rev. D. P. MAW, M.A., B.D., The Manse, Willoughby Road, London, N.W.3.

IRELAND.—Students for the ministry of the Non-Subscribing Presbyterian Churches in Ireland are expected to qualify as graduates, studying for their Arts course at one of the University Colleges, or elsewhere, and subsequently receiving their theological training at one of the above Theological Colleges. At Belfast there is a Dean of Residence (Rev. A. L. Agnew) entrusted with the religious oversight of all students attending College coming from Non-Subscribing or Unitarian congregations.

AMERICA.—The Harvard Divinity School, Cambridge, Mass., founded in 1816, is an organic part of the University and is wholly undenominational in character. Various denominations are represented in both the Faculty and the student body. The Divinity School provides a systematic three years' course of theological study for the degree of Bachelor of Theology (S.T.B.), it also offers special advantages to graduates of Theological Schools and other qualified students who may wish to undertake special courses of professional study. These studies may lead to the degrees of Master of Theology (S.T.M.) and Doctor of Theology (Th.D.), administered by the Faculty of Theology. For information apply to the Dean of the School, Francis Avenue, Cambridge, Mass.

Crane Theological School, Medford 55, Mass.—An avowedly liberal school of training for the ministry of religion. The full course is a three-year post-graduate course leading to the degree of S.T.B. Tufts (see above). Special courses are also offered. For information apply to the Dean.

Meadville Theological School (founded in Pennsylvania in 1844), Chicago, Illinois. The charter provides that "no doctrinal test shall ever be made a condition of enjoying any of the opportunities of instruction in the School." Meadville is now one of the associates in the Federated Theological Faculty of the University of Chicago. Address: 5701 Woodlawn Avenue, Chicago.

Starr King School for the Ministry, Berkeley, Calif. (1904).—A centre of graduate study in religion, and of practical training for the Ministry. For information apply to the Dean, 2441 Le Conte Avenue, Berkeley 4, California.

DR. WILLIAMS'S DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS AND GLASGOW BURSARIES

Undergraduate bursaries of £150 a year and post-graduate scholarships of £150 a year are offered for competition to students preparing for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry. The Bursary examination is held in April and the Scholarship examination in September, at Dr. Williams's Library, London. Application forms (returnable in February and May respectively) and full particulars may be had from the Secretary, Rev. Roger Thomas, 14 Gordon Square, London, W.C.1.

READING AND EXAMINATION SCHEME FOR LAY PASTORS

This method of preparing for ministerial status is open only to Lay Pastors of 28 years of age and upwards, who can show good reason why a College course is out of the question. Permission to pursue it is granted by the Ministry Committee on the production of adequate recommendations. There are four annual examinations, to be taken during a period of probation while the Lay Pastor is in charge of a congregation or mission. This period is not less than three years in the case of a graduate of an approved University, and not less than four years in the case of a non-graduate. The course of study includes Biblical Literature, History of Religion, Christian Doctrine, Philosophy of Religion, Psychology, and Sunday School work. Particulars may be obtained from the Secretary of the General Assembly.

ADVISORY COMMITTEES

The future of these Committees is under consideration, as recommended by the Commission on the Work of the Churches, with a view to the adoption of other methods of carrying out their functions. Meanwhile, the information given below represents the present position.

These Committees, six in number, were appointed by the Provincial Assemblies, or by groups of District Associations, and their areas of operation correspond with their method of appointment. The chief task is to examine the credentials, character, education and general fitness of (a) persons who, having done satisfactory work in connection with the Churches of the General Assembly, seek to be recognised as Lay Pastors; and (b) Lay Pastors who desire to be admitted to the Reading and Examination Scheme (see above). All recommendations are submitted to the Ministry Committee of the General Assembly for approval. Ministers from other Denominations seeking to enter the ministry of the General Assembly are now dealt with by the Ministry Committee direct.

The Advisory Committees are also empowered to offer their services in cases of difficulty arising between Minister and Congregation ; and likewise, on the application of a Minister, to adjudicate upon his continued fitness to occupy a ministerial position. These supplementary duties of Advisory Committees, though happily very seldom needing to be exercised, should not be forgotten by Congregations, Ministers, and District Associations.

Four of the six Advisory Committees—the Lancs. and Cheshire, Southern, Northern, and Midland—have surrendered their functions to the Ministry Committee. The remaining two are as follows :—

- (1) Western : appointed by the Western Union.
Sec., Rev. J. W. Maw.
- (2) South Wales : appointed by the South Wales Unitarian Association and the S.E. Wales Unitarian Society.
Sec., Rev. D. J. Davies.

MINISTERIAL SETTLEMENTS

The importance of wise counsel and friendly assistance in this matter cannot be over-estimated, and the Ministry Committee of the General Assembly exists chiefly to be of service in this connection both to congregations and to ministers.

Congregations seeking the appointment of a new Minister are strongly urged to apply to the Secretary for recommendations, which will be made by the Ministry Committee. Advertising by individual congregations should be avoided. The Ministry Committee will insert a list of Vacant Pulpits in The Inquirer at regular intervals. Ministers desiring a change of pastorate are invited to communicate with the Secretary of the General Assembly. The attention of congregations is called to the paragraph at the foot of page 31.

SECTION VII

BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES

Aged and Infirm Protestant Dissenting Ministers Society (1818).—Amounts are granted to Presbyterian, Independent, and Baptist, aged and infirm ministers in England and Wales.

Sec., Rev. P. Hannah, The Manse, Churt Road, Beacon Hill, Hindhead, Surrey.

Birmingham Unitarian Brotherly Benefit Society (1798).—Objects : To assure an allowance to members unable to work through sickness, payment of funeral expenses of a member's wife, and a sum on the death of a member ; to assist members in distressed circumstances from Benevolent Fund. The Society is connected with most of the Unitarian schools in Birmingham.

Sec., A. H. Blythe, 5 Corbett Street, Smethwick, 41, Staffs.

Chamberlain's (Leonard) Trust (1716).—The income is devoted towards the support of a number of almshouses, and to the payment of weekly pensions to poor people resident in and around the City of Hull. A grant is at the disposal of the Trustees towards the maintenance of a student or students for the ministry. The minister of Park Street Church and two other ministers benefit from the Trust.

Sec., C. B. Holmes, 1 Parliament Street, Hull.

Channing School Presentation Fund (1884).—Makes grants (supplemented from General Funds) towards the fees for the education of ministers' daughters at Channing School. The Dora Higginson Scholarship for a minister's daughter, already a pupil in the School, valued at about £30 a year, is tenable in the School at the discretion of the Governors for a period of not longer than four years.

The Bursar, Channing School, Highgate, London, N.6.

Chester Dissenting Ministers and Widows Fund. See " Timothy Dean Charity ", page 128.

Church Fellowship Loan Fund (1933).—From the proceeds of the General Assembly Church Fellowship Fund a certain sum was set aside to be used for loans to churches in connection with new buildings, extensions of existing buildings, and permanent reconstructions or improvements. Loans, free of interest, and varying from £50 to £200, but in no case exceeding half the total expenditure, are made upon the recommendation of District Associations. Repayment must be made by regular instalments within five years. Full particulars from The Secretary of the General Assembly.

Clough Fund (1755).—An annual sum of £10 is paid to the minister of Park Lane Chapel, near Wigan, and an annual sum of £5 to the minister of Hope Street Church, Liverpool, who now stands in the place of the minister of Key Street Chapel, Liverpool, mentioned by Mrs. Clough. The balance of the income is applied for educational purposes, more especially the education of students for the Christian Ministry, born in Lancashire, and for the purchase of suitable books for such students.

Treas., K. Clifford Cook, 87 Lord Street, Liverpool 2.

Daniel Jones Fund.—The income is devoted to College Fellowships, Bursaries, etc., at Manchester College, Oxford, and to certain purposes in Wales. For information apply to H. Gimson, 46 Ladbroke Square, London, W.11.

MINISTERS' STIPEND FUNDS

Ministers' Stipend Augmentation Fund (1856).—Object: The encouragement of ministers of congregations in England assembling for the public worship of God, the members or ministers of which shall not be required to subscribe or assent to any articles of religious belief, or submit to any test of religious doctrine. The Funds invested amount to £56,000, and the income is administered by a body of independent Trustees. Treasurer, F. D. Paterson, 34 Castle Street, Liverpool, 2. Applications for grants should be made before March 31st in each year to the Secretary, K. Clifford Cook, 87 Lord Street, Liverpool, 2.

Sustentation Fund for the Augmentation of Ministers' Stipends (1883).—Object : To aid in the maintenance of faithful and efficient ministers of Unitarian, Liberal Christian, Free Christian, Presbyterian, and other Non-Subscribing or Kindred Congregations as regularly assemble for the public worship of God. In 1929 revised regulations were adopted, whereby the Fund became amalgamated with the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches, and the former Board of Managers became a Departmental Committee of the Assembly, appointed annually by the Council, and empowered to appoint a treasurer and secretary for the Fund from among the members of the Committee. Forms of application for grants are received from the Secretary during March, and the Committee meets early in July to vote the grants for the twelve months from July 1st in each year.

The Fund consists of investments amounting to about £106,000.

The property of the Fund is kept distinct from other property held or administered by the Assembly, and is held by trustees appointed for the purpose. Separate accounts are kept of its administration, which are published with the annual Report of the General Assembly.

Treas., F. M. Jones, (Alfred Burgess and Co.), 4 Chapel Walks, Manchester.

Sec., H. B. Moore, 3 Grange Avenue, Hale, Nr. Altrincham.

MINISTERS' PENSION AND INSURANCE FUND (1902)

The Ministers' Pension and Insurance Fund (founded in 1902) exists to assist Ministers to make provision for their old age and for their families after their death ; its income, in the first instance, must be employed in assisting Ministers to pay the premiums on benefit policies effected by them in accordance with certain conditions set forth in the Fund's By-Laws ; almost all such benefit policies are now issued under the Contributory Insurance Scheme (inaugurated in 1925) whereby congregations also make contributions, mostly of £5 and upwards per annum, towards the insurance of their ministers. The Fund is now in union with the General Assembly which appoints nine of the eighteen Managers, and Ministers are expected to become adequately insured. From the Philip Holt Fund generous assistance is given in respect of Endowment Policies for the education of the children of Ministers, such policies being subject to regulations which the Pension Fund Managers are empowered to alter or vary from time to time. The Managers may also, in special cases, make grants (from the Philip Holt Fund) other than towards Insurance, which nevertheless has the first claim upon their consideration.

Chairman, Rev. Dr. Mortimer Rowe.

Sec., Rev. Dr. H. W. Stephenson, 1 South Way, Lewes, Sussex.

Treas., A. Wynn Kenrick, J.P., Clent Grange, nr. Stourbridge, Worcs.

THE MEN'S LEAGUE

The Unitarian and Free Christian Men's League (founded in 1920 as The Laymen's League, but now open to ministers and laymen). The objects of the League are especially to encourage laymen to take a more active part in the work of the churches and to give expression to their views on matters affecting the welfare of the denomination ; to cultivate closer co-operation between congregations, and to keep in touch with Unitarians residing at a distance from any of our churches. It aims at the formation of a branch of the League in every church, to strengthen the work of church, school and institute. Life-members contribute two guineas or more ; individual members half-a-crown or more per annum ; institutes, branches, etc., one shilling per member per annum.

Sec., J. T. Jones, 6 Edale Grove, Sale, Cheshire.

Treas., F. Rothwell, 30 West Avenue, Leigh.

WOMEN'S LEAGUES

The British League of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women was founded in 1908, with the following objects: I. To quicken the religious life of our Churches, and to bring Unitarian and other Liberal Christian women into closer co-operation and fellowship. II. To promote the formation of branches, or local organizations of women, in connection with the Churches and Kindred Societies. III. To suggest ways and means of providing for the needs and extending the influence of such Churches, and to collect and spread amongst the members information in matters of liberal religious interest. There are 206 Branches in connection with Churches of the General Assembly at home and overseas. Through its Fellowship Secretaries it keeps in touch with isolated women in the British Isles and Overseas, and through its International representatives, with women in the Liberal Religious Movements in foreign countries.

SECTION IX

LIBERAL RELIGIOUS MOVEMENTS ABROAD

(For names and addresses of correspondents abroad see page 147.)

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION

The American Unitarian Association was organised on May 25, 1825. Before that date there existed in Boston a club of some twenty liberal-minded and public-spirited citizens who met fortnightly to discuss subjects relating to religion, morals and civic order. At a meeting of the club in January, 1825, it was decided that the time had come to organize the liberal forces in the Congregational Churches. On May 25, a proposition to this effect was submitted to the Ministers of the Berry Street Conference, who voted that "it is expedient to form a new Society to be called the American Unitarian Association." The constitution was adopted the next morning, which, with some modification, is still in force. The Association was incorporated in 1847 and made a delegate body in 1885. Its main purpose, as defined by the constitution, is "to diffuse the knowledge and promote the interest of pure religion which in accordance with the teaching of Jesus is summed up in love to God and love to Man."

The Association is the chief executive arm of the Unitarian churches. Its work is carried on in various departments—finance, publications, world churches, religious education, Unitarian extension and Church maintenance, social relations, ministry. The headquarters of the Association are in the Unitarian Building at 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. President : Rev. Dana McLean Greeley, D.D., to whom all correspondence should be addressed.

Besides the American Unitarian Association, there are five other denominational organizations which work with it in close co-operation and have offices at 25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. : the General Alliance, the Laymen's League, the Ministerial Union, the Sunday School Society, and the Liberal Religious Youth, each with its own President and other officers.

OUTSIDE America, the British Dominions, Hungary and Transylvania, Liberal Religious churches and movements seldom use the name "Unitarian" or "Free Christian," but in many parts of the world there are Churches and Societies in substantial agreement with the same fundamental principles.

Belgium.—There is a Free Christian Church in Brussels, of which the late Rev. P. Teissonnière was minister from 1910 to 1940 ; he died in France in 1946. He was succeeded by the Rev. F. Hoyois in October, 1940. Liberal congregations connected with the parent church were also founded in Liège, Charleroi and Ghent. With much difficulty, Pastor Hoyois was able to keep the movement alive during the years of German occupation. The monthly publication, Les Conférences du Foyer, the organ of "The New Reformation," suffered interruption after 1940, and was revived by Pastor Hoyois, until 1947.

Czecho-Slovakia.—Bohemia, with its great memories of John Hus and the Moravian Brethren, had long been a centre of liberal thought, and the creation of the Republic in 1918 as a result of the war gave the people the freedom they desired. The effect upon their intellectual and spiritual life was profound. Upwards of one million seceded from the Roman Catholic Church and formed the Czecho-slovak Church, which threw off the dogmatic shackles of the past and became definitely liberal in its tendency. In 1924 it established its own Theological School in Prague, where some fifty students were usually in training for the ministry, taking courses also in the John Hus Protestant Theological Faculty of the University. Here several professorships have, since 1934, been held by scholars of the Czecho-slovak Church. The International Congress met in Prague in September, 1927, and did much to arouse interest in liberal religion. The Czecho-slovak Church co-operated in all the work of the Congress, as a liberal church based upon freedom of conscience. It has been a member-group of the International Association for Religious Freedom since the beginning. During the years before 1939, several students spent a session at Manchester College, Oxford. The drastic reduction of Czecho-slovakian territory in 1938, followed by the German occupation in March, 1939, and the war of 1939-45, inflicted grave suffering and loss upon this Church and upon immense numbers of its people, including several of its ministers, upon one of whom the death penalty was cruelly inflicted, while five died in concentration camps. Its head, Bishop Prochazka, died in 1941, after bravely resisting German repressive measures. His successor, Bishop Kovar, was elected in 1946.

In addition to the Czecho-slovak Church there is also a strong Unitarian movement in Prague, with branch groups in four or five other centres. In 1921, Dr. Norbert Capek went to Prague with the support of the American Unitarian Association, as the pioneer of this movement. His message met a widespread popular need, and its success was extraordinary. Temporary premises were secured on a good site, and subsequently a building was erected there with the help of the British and American Associations, as a centre of all the activities of the movement. Dr. Capek was imprisoned and afterwards brutally murdered in 1942 by the Germans, a fate from which his assistant and son-in-law, the Rev. Dr. K. Haspl, narrowly escaped. Dr. Haspl is now carrying forward the work with renewed vigour and success.

Denmark.—There is a Unitarian congregation in Copenhagen, which has grown considerably since its foundation. A fine church building was opened in 1928. The minister, Pastor Kierkegaard, has started missionary movements in four other towns, including Odense and Esbjerg. In August, 1934, the International Association held its Congress in Copenhagen by invitation of the Unitarian congregation. Pastor Kierkegaard was able to carry on his work during the years of German occupation, although amid much difficulty and hardship, and he and his congregation are now as active as in earlier years.

France.—A considerable number of the Protestant ministers of the Reformed Church in France belong to the liberal wing, which has an organisation of its own. The principal liberal churches in Paris are the Oratoire, 1 Rue de l'Oratoire du Louvre, and Le Foyer de l'Ame, Rue du Pasteur Wagner. Pasteur Barbier and his congregation at Strasbourg, evacuated and scattered during the war, are re-established in their former church. The years between the wars, however, saw a marked tendency towards the right in French Protestant theology, which had its effect upon the liberal movement.

Germany.—Before the first World War, the "Protestantenverein" (Protestant Union), formed in 1865, was the chief bond of union among German Liberal Christians; the principal centre of Liberal theology was the University of Marburg. During the long and troubled period between the two wars, and especially after 1933, when intellectual freedom was crushed, Liberal Religious thought and activity were conducted amid fear and uncertainty, and survived only on a much diminished scale. Since the end of the second World War communications have been reopened, and there is evidence of a widespread revival of interest in Liberal Religion. The Rev. Magnus Ratter visited the British and American Zones in October 1948, and the British Zone in May 1949, and Rev. Kenneth Twinn visited the Rhineland in May 1951, investigating the post-war situation. There are several communities claiming roots in the early 19th century Free Catholic and Free Protestant movements, unfortunately with little mutual co-operation, but standing for spiritual freedom, the use of reason rather than tradition, for tolerance rather than uniformity. These are the Deutscher Unitarier Bund (German Unitarian Association) centred mainly round Frankfurt and the Freie Gemeinden (Free Congregations) in Offenbach and Mainz, which are perhaps closest together; the Bund Freireligiöser Gemeinden Deutschlands (Association of Free-religious Congregations of Germany), mainly, though not exclusively in the Rhine Palatinate, and the Deutsche Unitarier, Religionsgemeinschaft (German Unitarians, Religious Fellowship), principally in North Germany, the latter two being rather more humanistic. All are free from state control. There are other groups in Berlin and elsewhere, as well as a small but influential minority in the orthodox church holding "modernist" convictions, and organised in the Bund für Freies Christentum (Association for Free Christianity).

Holland.—The "Nederlandse Protestantenvbond" (Protestant Union of Holland) was established in 1870 as a converging point for Liberals belonging to every church of the country—Reformed, Lutheran, Remonstrant, Mennonite, and Free. It was estimated in the years between the two wars that about twenty-five per cent. of the Protestant ministers in Holland were liberal. The "Vergadering van moderne Theologen" (a meeting of liberal Protestant ministers and scholars) was a yearly meeting of liberal ministers of various denominations. The liberal section of the Dutch Reformed Church was organized in several Provincial Unions. A Central Committee representing all groups of Free Protestants was formed, with headquarters in Utrecht. The Universities of Leiden and Amsterdam are the educational centres of the Free Protestantism in Holland; Leiden for the Dutch Reformed and Remonstrants, Amsterdam for the Mennonites and Lutherans. The International Congress of Religious Liberals was held at Amsterdam in 1903, and in Leiden in 1922. In 1929 the Headquarters of this movement, re-named the International Association for Religious Freedom, was established in Holland, with a Secretariat of Dutch Liberal ministers; today several laymen are also members. Since the war, one of the most significant developments has been the establishment of the Liberal Protestant Broadcasting Company (VPRO). It may be said that liberalism has an influence in Dutch life far greater than is commensurate with its actual membership.

Hungary.—In addition to a number of Unitarian congregations in various towns and villages, there is an important and influential church in Budapest (established in 1869) in the Headquarters building of the denomination. Largely because of the numbers of refugees from Transylvania after the first World War, steps were taken jointly in 1923 by the British and American Unitarian Associations to purchase suitable accommodation for a second Unitarian parish in Budapest under the ministry of the Rev. Dr. G. Csiki (Bishop of the Hungarian Unitarian Church until 1957) and the Unitarian Mission House was established, part of the premises being rebuilt in 1929 as a place of worship. Since the establishment of the People's Republic Communication has not been easy, and recent events have added to their difficulties.

Iceland.—Many people in Iceland are in sympathy with Unitarian religious opinions. The late M. Jochumsson, of Akureyri, poet and writer, formerly a Lutheran pastor, was an avowed liberal theologian. Twenty liberal Christian congregations are included in the United Conference of Icelandic Churches in North America. These congregations are in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, Canada.

India.—There are representatives of the Unitarian faith in many parts of India. The various sections of the Brahmo Samaj, the Theistic Church of India, have local societies in numerous places. The largest section, known as the Sadharan Brahmo Samaj, has its central office at 211 Cornwallis Street, Calcutta. Many of its leaders have been students at Manchester College, Oxford. There is a Unitarian church and congregation in Madras (estab. 1795). The Khasi and Jaintia Hills Unitarian Union includes a number of scattered congregations in Assam. Its members belong to the hill tribes and speak the Khasi language. From 1930 to 1932, Rev. Magnus Ratter was at work in India as the representative of the General Assembly, visiting many of the Brahmo Samaj congregations and spending a considerable time among the Khasi Hills Unitarians. In 1936, Rev. Margaret Barr, already engaged in religious teaching in Calcutta, and a welcome visitor to the Khasi churches, was appointed to succeed him. Miss Barr learnt the Khasi language, won the affection of the people, and strengthened and increased the number of their congregations. In due course she established and staffed schools which earned Government recognition and support. In 1948 the largest of these, the Lady Reid School, Shillong, was taken over by the Government, enlarged and rebuilt and turned into a Basic Training School. After a year and a half as Principal, Miss Barr resigned and handed it over to the Khasis. Meanwhile the Rural Training Centre at Kharang has been developed, the medical services having been much extended with the help of the Canadian Unitarian Service Committee.

Rumania.—A fully organized Unitarian Church has existed in Transylvania since its foundation by Bishop Francis David in 1568. In the sixteenth century it consisted of more than 400 congregations, but this number was greatly reduced by protracted and bitter persecutions which lasted about 200 years. Before the recent war the number of Unitarian congregations with settled ministers was 112 ; and there were fifty places where the minister of the neighbouring congregation rendered occasional services. The oldest congregation is at Cluj-Kolozsvár (1568). The total membership was 80,000. The churches are organized under a Bishop and two Curators (Lay Presidents). The churches are distributed into eight districts, each presided over by a Dean, and are governed by a Chief Consistory at Cluj-Kolozsvár. There are elementary schools attached to many of the congregations, and at Cluj-Kolozsvár and Keresztur there are High Schools for boys. There is a Theological College at Cluj-Kolozsvár, established about 1556 by John Sigismund, Prince of Transylvania. Many of the professors and ministers have studied at our English colleges. The Francis David Association, which was established in 1884, for the promotion of religion and moral culture, has many branches and upwards of 1900 members. The problem of the Unitarian and other Minority churches in Rumania after the 1914-18 war was full of difficulty and perplexity, but the situation was closely watched in England and America in the interests of religious liberty and the rights of minorities. In this work Unitarians took a leading part. Reliable news concerning the churches during the Russian occupation is still scanty, but Bishop Jozan who died in 1946 has now been succeeded by Bishop Alexis Kiss, elected in September, 1946.

Switzerland.—A considerable proportion of Swiss Protestants are Liberal Christians, although the influence of the Barthian theology during the recent years has undoubtedly had an adverse effect upon the numbers of those avowing liberal views. The liberal congregations are found in both the German and the French speaking cantons, notably in Zurich, St. Gall, Basle and Geneva. The Free Christian Union (Verein für Freies Christentum, Union Suisse pour le christianisme libéral), with many branches and a large membership, an association within the state church, which itself has a non-credal basis, is the official organisation and focal point of action. Popular literature and periodicals issued under its auspices have assisted greatly in spreading the knowledge of liberal doctrines, while more scholarly books and journals frequently appear. The University of Basle has a number of liberal professors, and the cathedral of Geneva represents a long liberal tradition, recently assured continuance by the appointment after some controversy of a young minister of that persuasion. The International Congress of Religious Liberals held its meetings in Geneva in 1905 ; the International Association for Religious Freedom held a delegate Conference at St. Gall in August, 1932, and a similar conference in August, 1947, at Berne.

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR LIBERAL CHRISTIANITY AND RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

(Incorporated under Dutch Law).

HEADQUARTERS (temporary): 40 Laan Copes van Cattenburch, The Hague, Holland.

The purposes of the Association are—

“(a) to bring into closer union the historic liberal Churches, the liberal element in all churches, and isolated congregations and workers for religious freedom ;

“(b) to draw into the same fellowship free religious groups throughout the world which are in essential agreement with our ways of thinking ;

“(c) to open and maintain communication with free Christian groups in all lands who are striving to unite religion and liberty, and to increase fellowship and co-operation among them.”

On 25th May, 1900, “The International Council of Unitarian and other Liberal Religious Thinkers and Workers” was organized at Boston U.S.A. In 1910 its title was changed to “The International Congress of Free Christians and other Religious Liberals.”

Meetings were held in London (1901), Amsterdam (1903), Geneva (1905), Boston, U.S.A. (1907), Berlin (1910) and Paris (1913). It was intended to hold a meeting in London in 1916, but the War made this impossible. The seventh meeting was held in Boston, U.S.A., October, 1920, in connexion with the Tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrim Founders of New England. The Congress met in Leiden in 1922, and in Prague in 1927.

In 1930 the administrative headquarters were transferred from London to Amsterdam and later to Utrecht. A small but representative gathering of delegates from America, Britain, and various Continental lands met at Arnhem (Holland) in 1930 and drafted a Constitution which was revised and adopted by a Delegate Conference held at St. Gall in 1932, when the present title was also adopted.

The first full Congress of the new Association was held at Copenhagen in 1934, and the second at Oxford in 1937. Theological Conferences were also held in 1936 at Arnhem, and at Bentveld in 1938. As soon as possible after the end of the war a representative delegate conference was summoned to re-establish contacts and to plan the future of the Association, at Cambridge, in July, 1946. A still larger conference was held at Berne in the summer of 1947. The first full post-war Congress was held in Amsterdam in 1949, and the second in Oxford in 1952, after which came Belfast 1955, Chicago 1958.

The present Officers of the Association are :—President, Rev. E. W. Kuebler, Vice-President, Rev. H. S. Carter ; Joint Secretaries, Dr. H. Faber, Dr. S. van der Woude and Mr. A. F. Leemans ; Treasurer, Mr. R. J. Advocaat. Individual Members Secretary, Rev. K. Twinn, Harrison Parsonage, Bolton Road, Atherton, Manchester.

THE BRITISH COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

This inter-denominational organization was brought into existence in 1942 on a creedal basis identical with that proposed for the World Council of Churches (then in process of formation), viz. "A fellowship of Churches which accept the Lord Jesus Christ as God and Saviour." The formal invitation to join the World Council, on condition of accepting the theological basis, had already, for obvious reasons, been respectfully declined by the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches. The British Council, however, was set up by the amalgamation of various pre-existing organizations—the Commission on International Fellowship and Social Responsibility, representing the "Life and Work" Movement, and the corresponding body representing "Faith and Order." The former was itself the result of a previous amalgamation of inter-denominational bodies which were free from theological commitments, and of which the General Assembly had been a member; but when it was proposed that these bodies should be united in a British Council of Churches on a theological basis, both the Society of Friends and the General Assembly intimated their inability to join the new organization. This resulted in the adoption of an amendment to the conditions of membership, consisting in the addition of the words "with the understanding that any body which has hitherto been represented on the Commission" (i.e., the Commission on International Friendship and Social Responsibility) "shall continue in membership of the Council, if so willing, even though it does not itself accept the Basis." On these terms the Society of Friends and the General Assembly were included in the British Council, along with the larger Protestant denominations which accept the basis.

Births, Registration.—Parents are required to register the birth of their children at the Registrar's office for the district in which the child is born within six weeks. Penalty of 40s. for default. There is no charge for such registration.

Deaths, Registration.—Deaths must be registered within five days. The nearest relative present at the death or during the last illness is the responsible person, or should there be no relative present, then the occupier of the house, or the person who causes the body to be buried. Penalty for default, 40s. The doctor's certificate must be produced to the Registrar at the time of registration ; and the Registrar's certificate to the officiating minister at the interment.

Registration of Chapels.—All places of worship should be registered. Registration is effected by giving a certificate in writing that the Chapel is used for worship to the Superintendent-Registrar of the District on a form which he will supply on application. The fee on registration is 2s. 6d., and a certified copy of the Registrar-General's certificate of the registration can be obtained for a further payment of 2s. 6d. Registered places of worship are exempt from the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Acts. When a place of worship is entirely rebuilt, either on the same or another site, the old certificate of registration must be cancelled and the place re-registered. The registration can apply to all rooms having an internal communication, though not under one roof. A rough sketch plan should be supplied to the Registrar on a new registration and alterations, shutting off rooms or opening new rooms should be notified to him.

Disturbance of Religious Worship.—Statutory penalties can be enforced for this offence if in a certified place of worship, churchyard or burial ground.

Registration for Marriages.—A place of worship must, before marriages can legally be celebrated therein, in addition to being registered as above mentioned, be separately registered for the performance of marriages. Before registering a place for marriages, the Superintendent Registrar of the District must be satisfied by certificate that the building has been used for worship for one year previous to the application. A fee of £3 is payable, and the Registration is advertised in the London Gazette and in a local newspaper. When a chapel ceases to be used for worship or is rebuilt, the Certificate is cancelled, and in that case it requires to be renewed if worship is resumed. When a congregation has removed from one chapel to another, and the old building has ceased to be used as a place of public worship, the Certificate of the old chapel may be cancelled, and the new building registered for the solemnization of marriages, without waiting for a year to elapse. All necessary forms and information will be supplied by the Superintendent-Registrar of the District.

Marriages : England and Wales.—Marriages may be solemnized in any registered building, or in a district registry office either by Certificate or by Licence. Consent of the minister must be obtained or of one of the trustees, owners, deacons or managers. If by Certificate, notice (accompanied with fee of 1s. for entry in "Marriage Notice Book") must be given by one of the parties, if both live in one district, to the Superintendent-Registrar, on form furnished for purpose, containing solemn declaration of absence of impediment to intended marriage, certifying that both of the parties have dwelt at least seven days in district, and must be signed in presence of Registrar or deputy; but if parties live in different districts, notices must be sent to respective Superintendent-Registrars. Twenty-one clear days after entry of notice the Certificate (for which 1s. 6d. must be paid) will be granted on application.

If by Licence, though both parties do not dwell in same district, only one need give notice, certifying that he or she has resided at least fifteen days in district, though marriage may be held in district of either party. Both parties, however, must be in England at the time of notice, though only one clear day is required (unless marriage takes place in Ireland with some one there, when seven days are required) between notice and granting of licence. Cost of Licence, £2 5s.

If "usual place of worship" at which ceremony is desired, be out of district of either's dwelling, by inserting words:—"Such building being usual place of worship of said—," Certificate will be granted accordingly.

The marriage must take place in registered building specified in Certificate, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, within three calendar months from day of entry of notice, in presence of Registrar (or his deputy, or, if the Marriage Act of 1898 has been adopted, in the presence of the Authorised Person) and two or more credible witnesses besides minister, if any. At some part of the ceremony the words must be said:—"I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I—— may not be joined in matrimony to——"; and each must say to other: "I call upon these persons here present to witness that I—— do take thee—— to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)"; without which it is not a marriage.

Registrar's fee for attending marriage by Certificate, 7s. 6d.; by Licence, 15s.; for Copy of Certificate, 3s. 9d.

By the Marriage Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vic. c. 58), marriage may be solemnized in the registered building named in the Superintendent's Certificate without the presence of any Registrar, but in the presence of such duly Authorized Person as mentioned in the Statute. The Statute provides for the notices and forms required to be given or complied with and the register to be kept. It is important to note that, when a Minister who has been appointed Authorized Person for a Registered Building ceases to be a Minister and Authorized Person for that Building, the person who succeeds him as Minister does not thereby become Authorized Person and entitled to act as such, until his appointment has been certified to the Registrar General by the Trustees or other Governing Body in precisely the same manner as in the case of his predecessor; he should therefore await a notification from the Registrar General that his appointment has been duly registered.

Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister was legalized by Act of Parliament, August, 1907, and with a Deceased Brother's Widow, July, 1921, or with a nephew or niece by marriage or uncle or aunt by marriage, July, 1931.

After a marriage at a Registrar's office, the religious service may be performed by the minister on production of the marriage certificate and payment of the customary fees, but such service is not to be recorded in the parish register of marriages.

Marriages : N. Ireland.—Marriages according to the form and discipline of the Presbyterian Church may be celebrated—(1) By Special Licence; (2) By licence; or (3) After publication of banns.

(1) In the first case at least one of the parties must be a member of a church in the Synod or Presbytery of the Moderator who grants the Special Licence.

(2) Ordinary Licences can be granted when only one of the parties is a Presbyterian. Each Presbytery is authorized to appoint, subject to the approval of the governor of Northern Ireland, ministers to issue licences for marriage in meeting-houses duly certified.

Anyone wishing to obtain a Licence must, seven days before the licence shall be delivered to him or her, produce to the licensing minister a certificate from the minister of the congregation of which he or she shall be a member and has been a member for at least one calendar month preceding.

(3) When both parties are Presbyterians, marriages may be celebrated after the banns have been proclaimed for three Sundays in the Presbyterian meeting-houses attended by each of the parties.

Marriages : Scotland.—The ceremony can be performed by the minister of any denomination, in any place, at any time, with or without any particular form. The law has been amended so as to put an end, as far as possible, to what were known as "irregular" marriages. Legal notice must now be given to the Registrar of the parish or district, the names of the contracting parties being exhibited for seven days on the notice board outside the office of the Registrar in whose district the parties have resided for at least fifteen days immediately preceding. At the expiration of the period named a Certificate will be granted and on this the marriage may take place either in a church or elsewhere. By an act that came into force in 1940 this same procedure may now be followed in the case of marriages taking place in a Registrar's office.

Burial Act, 1880.—Wherever there is a Cemetery there is no difficulty in the way of a Nonconformist minister conducting a funeral service. The Act of Parliament of 1890 authorizes any person responsible for the burial of a body to give forty-eight hours' notice to the incumbent of the parish in which the death took place, or in his absence to his deputy, that it is intended that the body shall be buried in the churchyard of the parish without the Church of England service. The Act allowed a like notice to be given to the chaplain of a parochial cemetery if a burial was intended to be made there; but the Burial Act, 1900 (63 & 64 Vic. c. 15, s. 8) requires that in the last-mentioned case the notice shall be given at such time and to such person as the burial authority directs. It is therefore necessary in that case to inquire at the office of the cemetery, and to give such notice as the rules of the cemetery prescribe.

In the case of burials in churchyards the form of notice is specified in the Act of 1880, and the requirements are as follows :—

The Notice must be in writing; must be endorsed on the outside

"Notice of Burial"; must be signed with the name and address of the person giving it, and be in the form, or to the effect, following:—

I _____, of _____, being the relative [or friend, or legal representative, as the case may be, describing the relation, if a relative] having the charge of, or being responsible for, the burial of A. B., of _____, who died at _____, in the parish of _____, on the _____ day of _____, do hereby give you notice that it is intended by me that the body of the said A. B. shall be buried within the [here describe the churchyard or graveyard in which the body is to be buried] on the _____ day of _____, at the hour of _____, without the performance in the manner prescribed by law of the service for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Church of England; and I give this notice pursuant to the Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880.

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____ NOTE.—While it is desirable to keep to this form, the person receiving it will not be at liberty to object to its sufficiency, because the exact words are not used; the Act only requiring that the notice shall be in the form, "or to the effect," of the above.

In the case of a churchyard, the notice is to be left at the house of the clergyman, or in his absence, of the clergyman in charge of the parish, or of any person appointed to receive such notices. It is not necessary that the clergyman should consent to a burial under the Act. He can object only to the time proposed, and do that only in certain cases. Unless it be otherwise mutually arranged, burials must be between 10 and 6 o'clock from April 1st to October 1st, and between 10 and 3 from October 1st to April 1st.

A burial may take place either without "any religious service" or "with such Christian and orderly religious service" at the grave as the person responsible for the burial may think fit, and "any person or persons"—whether ministers or laymen—who may be invited or authorized, may conduct such service, or take part in any religious act thereat. The words "Christian service" include "every religious service used by any church, denomination, or person, professing to be Christian."

The person having charge of a burial under the Act must, either on the same day or the day after, send to the incumbent or his representative—or, in the case of a Cemetery, to the clerk—a certificate of the burial in prescribed form.

I _____, of _____, the person having the charge of or, being responsible for the burial of the deceased, do hereby certify that on the _____ day of _____, 19____, _____, aged _____, was buried in the churchyard [or graveyard] of the parish [or district] of _____

To the Rector [or as the case may be] of _____

The Act of 1880 does not entitle anyone to be buried in any place in which he would have no right to be buried if the Act had not passed. Neither does it affect previously existing regulations or authority in regard to the position of graves, inscriptions on gravestones, etc.

Burial Act, 1900.—This Act modifies the Act of 1880 in the case of the consecrated parts of parochial cemeteries. The Act does not deal with churchyards. In future, Burial Boards "may, if they think fit," apply to have a portion of the cemetery consecrated; formerly they were compelled to have a portion consecrated. Burial Boards are no longer compelled to erect two cemetery chapels, one for Anglicans and one for Nonconformists. They may erect any chapel "they may consider necessary"; but any chapel so erected "shall not be consecrated or reserved for the exclusive use of any denomination." The payment of fees to an incumbent of a parish will no longer be required "except for services rendered by him." In future, when a Nonconformist minister officiates in the consecrated part of a parochial cemetery, he, and not the clergyman, will receive the fee. These provisions apply to cemeteries opened after the passing of the Act. In the case of cemeteries already existing the old fees were continued for fifteen years, that is until 1915.

Cremation.—This is regulated by the Cremation Act, 1902, and the Regulations made by the Home Secretary in pursuance of that Act. It is no longer necessary to leave written evidence of a wish to be cremated; in the absence of a contrary declaration, the declaration of an Executor or member of the family is sufficient. Two medical certificates of death are required. Forms and full information can be obtained from the Secretary or Superintendent of a Crematorium.

Charitable Trusts.—The Acts relating to Charitable Trusts give the Charity Commissioners very extensive jurisdiction over all charitable trusts (except certain exempted charities), and empower the Commissioners to inquire into the management of charities, to oblige their trustees to render accounts, to advise such trustees on the administration of the trusts, to authorize or direct legal proceedings to be taken, to authorize the granting of leases and making of improvements, and raising of money by mortgage, to authorize trustees to remove schoolmasters and other officers, to authorize the sale, exchange, or partitions of lands, to remove and appoint trustees, and to make new schemes or the administration of charities. Among the charities exempted from the operations of these Acts are any buildings registered as places of meeting for religious worship with the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, and bona fide used as places of meeting for religious worship. Exempted charities can, by application under certain sections of one of the Acts, have the benefits of the Acts extended to them. Educational charities are under the jurisdiction of the Board of Education.

Dissenters' Chapels Act, 1844.—It is under this Act (7 & 8 Vict. c. 45), that many of the old Presbyterian Chapels are secured to the Unitarians. The Act provides in substance that where there is no express statement in the deed of foundation as to the particular doctrines for which a chapel was to be employed, twenty-five years' usage shall be conclusive evidence of the legality of the doctrines.

National Insurance Act, 1946.—This comprehensive Act, which came into full operation on July 5th, 1948, supersedes the various earlier Acts dealing with National Health Insurance, Old Age Pensions, Unemployment Insurance, and Workmen's Compensation. As the new Act applies in some measure to everyone, its provisions have been fully and publicly made known, and need not be summarized here. It has been necessary, however, for religious denominations to secure a ruling from the Ministry of National Insurance concerning the category, or categories, in which ministers of religion are to be placed—whether “employed persons” or “self-employed persons.” The official ruling, applicable to all denominations, is as follows :—

Ministers of Religion engaged in normal ministerial duties in charge of a congregation, or congregations, are to be placed in the self-employed class, Class 2. Ministers appointed to administrative posts at denominational headquarters, or to full-time posts on the teaching staff of a theological college, are properly to be regarded as employed under contract of service and insurable in the employed class, Class 1, unless in a particular instance there are special circumstances whereby the terms of appointment are such as to negative the existence of contract of service.

Oaths Act, 1888.—This Act enacts that every person upon objecting to being sworn, and stating, as the ground of such objection, either that he has no religious belief, or that the taking of an oath is contrary to his religious belief, shall be permitted to make his solemn affirmation instead of taking an oath, in all places and for all purposes where an oath is or shall be required by law, which affirmation shall be of the same force and effect as if he had taken the oath. Every such affirmation shall be as follows :—“ I, A. B., do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm,” and then proceed with the words of the oath prescribed by law, omitting any words of imprecation or calling to witness. If any person to whom an oath is administered desires to swear with uplifted hand in the form and manner in which an oath is usually administered in Scotland, he shall be permitted to do so, and the oath shall be administered to him in such form and manner without further question. By the Act of 1909, an alteration in the manner of administering oaths is authorized.

Rates and Taxes, Exemption from.—Income Tax is not chargeable on Chapel properties so far as they are used, or the rents or profits are applied, for charitable purposes, e.g., if used solely for religious purposes. Where manses or other Church properties are let by the church to the minister, or others, and rent is paid to the Church, Schedule A Tax can be reclaimed.

Rates are not payable in respect of premises exclusively appropriated for public religious worship and duly certified for such purpose. Very often some profit is derived from lettings and rates are payable though the profit goes to a charitable object, but a nominal assessment may be agreed. It is difficult to say what use of a chapel or school renders it liable to rates. User for Sunday or infant schools, or for charitable education of the poor does not do so.

Workmen's Compensation Acts.—So far as the purposes of this Year Book are concerned, these Acts are now superseded by the provision for Industrial Insurance in the National Insurance Act, 1946 (see p. 152).

Leasehold Enfranchisement.—The Places of Worship (Enfranchisement) Act, (1920). Under this Act all religious bodies will be able in most cases to obtain a secure tenure of the property used as a place of worship which they hold on lease by purchasing the absolute freehold interest, subject to the payment of fair compensation.

Ministers' Income Tax.—Where a clergyman or minister of any religious denomination is obliged to reside in a manse, he is not assessable on the annual value or on the outgoings paid for him. In cases where he may occupy a residence and either pays rent therefor, or occupies it rent free, but has the right to let the property, if he so desires, he is assessable on the annual value, and on the outgoings paid for him (if any), but he is entitled to require that the annual value of the house, after deducting therefrom the amount of any annual sum payable in respect of such house, whether paid by the Minister or the Trustees, shall be treated as "earned income."

In this section, the expression "annual sum" means any yearly interest, annuity, rent, rent charge, fee farm rent, rent service, quit rent, feu-duty, or other annual payment reserved or charged upon any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or heritages.

A minister may claim deductions in respect of—

(1) Any expenses incurred by him wholly exclusively and necessarily in the performance of his duty as a Minister.

Under this paragraph a Minister may claim deductions for :—

(a) Travelling expenses necessarily incurred by the Minister in performing his duty of pastoral visitation.

Under this head would be included bus and tram fares, or the running cost and wear and tear (proportionate to the use thereof for official purposes) of such means of locomotion belonging to the Minister as motor car or bicycle where the circumstances or size of the Minister's district necessitated the employment of such means for the proper performance of his duties (e.g. where the Minister has pastoral charge of two or more village churches).

(b) Out-of-pocket payment for stamps, stationery, telephone, telegrams, etc., incurred in the performance by the Minister of his duties.

(c) Payments for :—

Rates—One-quarter general and water rates.

Fire, etc., Insurance—One-quarter.

Lighting and heating the study.

Robes—cost of repair, cleaning and renewals.

Maid—part cost of wages, insurance, laundry, uniform, and board and lodging where provided.

Books and Sermons, but as regards books the cost of replacement only.

It is important that records of the expenses under the headings (a), (b) and (c) should be kept by the Minister, but where no records have been kept in the past it is suggested that the claim might be based upon a reasonable estimate of the expenses incurred, and this could be discussed with the Inspector of Taxes.

(2) Where the Minister pays rent for a dwelling house, or is in the occupation of a dwelling house but pays no rent therefor, and uses any part of such house mainly and substantially for the purpose of his duty as a Minister, he may claim as an expense a corresponding part of the rent or annual value of the house, not exceeding one-quarter, but this does not apply where he is obliged to reside in the house, by virtue of his office.

(3) Locum tenens during Illness—Where a Minister is incapacitated through illness from performing his duties, the cost necessarily incurred and paid by him in providing a locum tenens may be claimed as a deduction. If the cost of vacation “supplies” is borne by him, he may likewise claim a deduction.

PERFORMING RIGHTS AND ENTERTAINMENT TAX

It is the legal duty of all persons promoting public entertainments, or those allowing their premises to be used for such purposes, to obtain permission from copyright-owners before using any works of which the copyright has not yet run out. This applies to all works, whether dramatic, operatic, vocal or instrumental or mechanical, except where it is definitely stated that the work may be performed without fee.

In the case of dramatic and operatic works, permission should be obtained beforehand from the author or his agent, who can be approached through the publisher. Where a fee is charged, this should be paid before the day of the performance.

For almost all vocal, instrumental, or mechanical music other than operettas, cantatas, musical comedies produced in their entirety application must be made to the Performing Right Society, 33 Margaret Street, W.1., an organisation consisting of the majority of publishers, composers and lyric-writers of this country and affiliated with similar organisations throughout the world. When applying for an annual licence for their Hall, secretaries of congregations on the Roll of the General Assembly should state clearly that they are applying under the agreement between the Society and the General Assembly, if they wish to obtain the advantage of the special terms arranged.

As the Society controls the public use of over 90 per cent. of the music published in this country, it is very difficult to run a concert to-day entirely on non-copyright items.

The Society states that it does not wish to interfere with devotional services in churches and chapels and, though legally entitled to do so, does not propose to claim a fee for music used therein.

It is suggested that a performance is “in public” when money is taken for entrance, or a collection is made, or when strangers are present with or without payment—in most cases, that is, except where the gathering is small, and confined strictly to members of the congregation or society concerned, and where there is no money paid.

Entertainments Duty is charged on payments for admission as a spectator or member of an audience to an entertainment, and unless the Commissioners of Customs and Excise have authorised other arrangements tickets of admission shall be stamped with a stamp denoting that the duty has been paid, and no person paying for admission shall be admitted without such a ticket.

An “Entertainment” includes any exhibition, performance, amusement, game or sport to which persons are admitted for payment.

There are, however, a number of exemptions.

Duty shall not be charged (or in some cases, shall be repaid) where the Commissioners are satisfied :

(a) that the whole of the takings are devoted to philanthropic or charitable purposes without any charge on the takings for expenses. (Form E.D. 12) or

(b) that the entertainment has been promoted by a society or institution of a permanent character established or conducted solely or partly for philanthropic or charitable purposes, or by two or more such societies or institutions acting in combination, and that the whole of the net proceeds of the entertainment are devoted to philanthropic or charitable purposes. (Form E.D. 40) or

(c) that the whole of the net proceeds are devoted to philanthropic or charitable purposes, and that the whole expenses do not exceed 50 per cent of the receipts. "Receipts" in this respect means not only admission money but also e.g. receipts from sale of programmes, refreshments etc., In such cases either the duty must be paid and repayment claimed subsequently, or an agreed sum must be previously deposited, which will be paid on production to the Commissioners of satisfactory accounts and receipts from the benefiting charities. (Form E.D. 14) or

(d) that the entertainment is of a wholly educational character. (Form E.D. 23).

EXEMPTION OF AMATEUR ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Finance Act, 1949, Section 10, now provides for exemption from duty "any entertainment which is held on or after the 31st day of July, 1949, and consists of one or more of the following items, that is to say—

- (a) a stage play ;
- (b) a ballet (whether a stage play or not) ;
- (c) a performance of music (whether vocal or instrumental) ;
- (d) a lecture ;
- (e) a recitation ;
- (f) an eisteddfod ;

where the Commissioners are satisfied that the entertainment is provided by a society, institution or committee which is not conducted or established for profit and that the entertainment is an amateur one."

In all cases where exemption is claimed, prior application must be made to the local Collector of Customs and Excise, or to the Secretary, Customs and Excise, City Gate House, 39/45 Finsbury Square, London, E.C.2., not less than fourteen days before the date of the entertainment. Forms of application for return of duty, etc., can be obtained from the same sources. Unless exemption is obtained before the entertainment, duty must be paid.

Where members pay an annual subscription which admits to entertainments or lectures it has been held that a proper proportion of the subscription must be considered to be paid in respect of admission to any particular entertainment and to be liable to duty. But if the proportion as determined by the Commissioners is not more than twopence it would seem that no duty is payable.

It is advisable that in all cases where an entertainment is to be given and a charge for admission made, the local office of Customs and Excise, or the Headquarters office, should be informed well in advance and the exact position as to liability to Entertainments Duty ascertained.

THIRD PARTY LEGAL LIABILITY INSURANCE

The Council of the General Assembly has taken out a Policy in respect of all Churches, Chapels, Sunday Schools and/or Church Halls in England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales upon the current list of congregations in our Year Book, the cover being as follows :—

This Policy is to cover the Assured's Legal Liability in respect of Third Party Claims involving personal injuries, or accidental damage to property, arising from defects in the premises, or properties or furnishings, and negligence of employees or any person for which the Church Authorities may be responsible, including indemnity in respect of the liability of the Assured in connection with Sunday School Treats, Excursions and Outings and Legal Liability for injuries to persons and damage to property as the result of panic following fire or the alarm of fire.

Excluding all Liability arising in connection with organised sports or games other than sports and games during Sunday School Treats and Outings.

Limit any one accident £25,000 unlimited during the year of Insurance. Law costs payable in addition.

This insurance is in respect of all Churches, Chapels, Sunday Schools and/or Church Halls in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, upon the current list of Congregations in the year book of General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches, extending to cover unpaid officials of the Churches described hereon such as members of Committees, Secretaries and Treasurers.

It is further agreed that this Policy indemnifies the Assured in respect of their premises which may be let to Third Parties irrespective of the purpose for which such premises may be let.

This Policy does not cover claims covered by any other Policy.

The policy does not cover (i) Workmen's Compensation ; (ii) Damage to Assured's own property and buildings ; (iii) Injury or damage directly or indirectly caused by fire and/or explosion except such as is specifically mentioned above.

Congregations are asked to make contributions of 10s. 6d. per annum towards the heavy cost of this policy.

APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES

This is now to be effected either under the Trustee Act 1925, or in accordance with the expressed provisions of the Trust Deed, or the provisions of the Charities Act, 1960. The latter Act repealed the "Trustee Appointment Acts 1850 to 1890 " mentioned in previous editions of this Year Book, except to the extent that the provisions of those Acts may still be applicable in respect of certain Charitable Trusts in existence prior to 1960.

Before deciding on the method of appointment of new Trustees legal advice should be obtained.

If none of the above methods of appointment is applicable resort should be had to the powers of the Charity Commissioners.

The B. and F.U.A. Incorporated may be available as a Trustee, with consent (see p. 116). As a corporate body it would so act as a continuing trustee, even if no other Trustee survived. It may act as Custodian Trustee, when the church property and investments must be vested in it alone, while the trusts are administered by persons who are appointed Managing Trustees. Alternatively, it may act as one of a number of general trustees having the same powers and duties. In the former case it secures that the deeds are not lost, as often happens where individuals act as trustees.

The Model Trust Deed is omitted this year as its revision is under consideration.

FORMS OF BEQUEST TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Form of Gift of Money by Will

I give to the Society now known as the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches, the sum of £.....free of all death duties, and the receipt of the Treasurer or Secretary of such Society for the time being shall be a sufficient discharge to my Executors.

Form of Gift of Land or Houses by Will

I devise to the Society now known as the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches, free of all death duties my house (or field, describe the premises) upon trust to sell the same and hold the net proceeds of such sale upon trust for the general purposes of the said Society.

DEEDS OF COVENANT AND THE SIMPLEX ENVELOPE SCHEMEPreliminary.

Any person who subscribes to the funds of a Church under the Simplex Envelope Scheme can do so under Deed of Covenant. There is nothing in the Income Tax Acts which prevents a subscription under Deed from being paid by weekly or other instalments. The actual procedure to be followed by the Treasurer is, however, slightly different from that applicable to annual subscriptions.

The Deed of Covenant.

No special form of Deed of Covenant is necessary, but it is advisable (though not essential) to indicate that the subscription is paid weekly. Thus, the following is a suitable wording :—

ANNUITY DEED IN FAVOUR OF
(Name of Church or other Charitable Trust)

I, (full name of disporonor)
of (full address)

hereby covenant with the Trustees for the time being of (name of Church) that for a period of seven years from 6th April, 19....., or during my life-time (whichever period may be the shorter), I will pay to the said Trustees annually such a sum out of my general fund of taxed income as, after deduction of Income Tax at the standard rate for the time being in force, will leave a net yearly sum of (amount of subscription).

Such sum to be payable by weekly instalments.

IN WITNESS whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this (date in words) day of 19 .

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of.....
(Signature of Disporonor)

Witness's signature

Address (SEAL)

Occupation

Period Covered by Deed.

During a normal year, the fifty-two weekly instalments due under the Simplex Scheme will be covered by the Deed, which should be made out for the total of these, so far as it is ultimately receivable by the Church. Thus, if a subscriber pays 2/6 per week, 2/- to Church funds and 3d. each to the District Association and the General Assembly, then the Deed should be made out for $52 \times 2/- = \pounds 5 \text{ 4s. 0d.}$, since the balance of 6d. per week is ultimately paid over to the District Association and the General Assembly. These two may also be covered by separate Deeds made out in their favour if the annual amounts are sufficient to warrant it. One Deed however will cover subscriptions to several funds if they are all ultimately received by the Church. About once in four years, a fifty-third payment will be made within the year, but this should be ignored for the purposes of the Deed.

Arrears made good after the 5th April will count as if they had been paid when due.

When a Deed is entered into, it must often happen that it is offered on a date in the middle of the fiscal year, and the Treasurer is then in a difficulty regarding the date for the Deed to commence. If the 6th April is not too far ahead, it is probably best to use that date and ignore (for Covenant purposes) subscriptions to be paid before then. If a new subscriber offers a Deed on joining, it may be possible to persuade him to make up arrears from 6th April last, and use that date. But when continuing subscribers offer a Deed, this cannot be done, as no payment made before a Deed is entered into is effective under it. In such a case, sometimes the only thing to do is to make the Deed out for seven years from the day before the next Sunday, so as to cover all future subscriptions. This, however, produces awkward "broken periods" for tax purposes in the years in which such a Deed commences or expires, and these "broken periods" will continue with succeeding Deeds.

The wise Treasurer will therefore always canvass for Deeds in March, so as to be able to make them effective from the following 6th April.

Certificates of Deduction of Tax.

These should be made out on the ordinary Form R185, not Form R185(AP) which is for annual payments. Insert in col. 1 on the back "Annuity under Deed dated.....", in col. 2 the words "My taxed Income", in col. 3 the gross equivalent of the payment for the year, in col. 4 the tax deducted, and in col. 5 "Year ended 5th April, 19..... : payable weekly". (See "Charitable Subscriptions under Deed of Covenant", by C. L. Wykes, p. 12).

The gross equivalent of the payment for the year will normally, be the annual amount covenanted for under the Deed (i.e. 52 weekly subscriptions) grossed up at the standard rate for the year, and the tax deducted will be the difference between this and the net amount. When a Deed is to come into effect from a date other than the 6th April, however, the first year's form will cover only the number of subscriptions due between that date and the 5th April next, and it is the total of these that, grossed up, forms the "gross equivalent". Similarly, when such a Deed expires, it is the total of the subscriptions from 6th April to the date of expiry which requires to be grossed up. If (as will be usual) a new Deed is entered into to be effective from the expiry date, this will require a separate Form R185 to cover the subscriptions due under it for the remainder of the fiscal year. For intermediate years, the normal procedure should be followed : each form R185 should cover a full year from the 6th April to the 5th April next.

Increase of Subscriptions.

Generally speaking, when a disponent increases his subscription, it is best to take no action until the Deed falls due for renewal, when the new one is made out for the increased amount. It is possible, however, to enter into a Deed for the amount of the increase up to the date of expiry of the old Deed and then for the full amount, provided that the latter is covered for a further seven years. Thus, if a person whose subscription was 5/- per week increased it to 10/- whilst his Deed has still four years to run, a new Deed could be offered with the wording modified on the following lines : “. . . for a period of eleven years from 6th April, 1958, . . . will leave a net yearly sum of THIRTEEN POUNDS in each of the years ending 5th April, 1959, 1960, 1961 and 1962, and TWENTY-SIX POUNDS in each of the seven ensuing years. . . .”

Liability at Reduced Rate.

Persons not liable to tax at the standard rate should not be asked to sign Deeds, as such action inevitably involves them in expense. If such a person volunteers to sign, however, it may be possible to modify his subscription so that the formula outlined on p. 11 of “Charitable Subscriptions under Deed of Covenant” can be applied.

A FREE RELIGIOUS FAITH

The Report of a Unitarian Commission

"... in this book the issues are so fairly set out and so frankly faced that it may be instructive even to those who disagree fundamentally with its line of argument..."

TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT.

"... a book full of learning and suggestiveness... contains some of the best 'apologetic' material we have had from the religious angle for some time, especially on the relation of religion to science and on such practical and burning questions as the problems of evil and suffering..."—CHRISTIAN WORLD.

"... There is much in this book that we like. It is so palpably the work of truth-loving men: it is not afraid to bring the Christian faith into the light of modern thought; it throbs with sincerity from beginning to end..."—EXPOSITORY TIMES.

"... A really valuable survey of modern thought on most subjects connected with the Christian religion."

THE CONGREGATIONAL QUARTERLY.

"... The work as a whole has a crispness and definiteness one hardly expects of a committee, and difficulties are not shirked, though there is no assumption of dogmatic finality..."
